

GENERAL PROVISIONS

In the case of the exchange of university professors and researchers, each side undertakes to inform the other, at least two months in advance, of:

- a) - the names of the persons, their "curriculum vitae", and the languages they are familiar with;
- b) - their work or study program, their academic level, and the title of possible lectures they may give;
- c) - the period proposed for the visits.

The arrival date of the above-mentioned persons should be confirmed at least two weeks in advance.

The sending side will inform the other side through diplomatic channels, if possible three months in advance, of details concerning personalities and experts that it intends to send to the receiving country.

The selection of candidates for the scholarships covered by the present program will be made by a special committee which will include a representative of the other country. The time limit for the presentation of applications will be agreed on each year through diplomatic channels.

FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

The exchange of persons provided for in this program shall be carried out as follows:

- a) - the return air fare to the farthest destination point shall be assumed by the sending side;
- b) - domestic travel expenses, necessitated by the visit, shall be assumed by the receiving side, in accordance with domestic regulations;
- c) - with respect to exchanges in the field of information, the Italian side (Information Bureau of the President of the Council of Ministers) will assume all living expenses;
- d) - the exchange of persons provided for in this program shall be considered the responsibility of the institutes concerned. With respect to Canadian financial assistance, these exchanges could be assumed by the Bank of 100 Days if no other financial means are available.

EXCHANGE OF SCHOLARSHIPS

The Italian side will give the Canadian scholarship holders:

- a) - a monthly sum of 600,000 Italian lira;
- b) - partial exemption from university fees;
- c) - life, accident and health insurance, except with respect to pre-existing illnesses and dental prosthesis;
- d) - return travel costs for each scholarship of at least 8 months;
