This statement shall also indicate:

- (I) that these legal provisions were in force at the time of the commission of the offence and still apply at the time of the extradition request;
- (II) whether or not the prosecution of the offence, the imposition or the enforcement of any applicable penalty is barred by reason of prescription; and
- (III) where the offence occurred outside the territory of the Requesting State, the legal provisions establishing its jurisdiction;

(b) in the case of a person sought for prosecution for an offence:

- (i) the original or a certified true copy of the order of arrest or any other document having the same force and effect, issued in the Requesting State;
- (ii) a copy of the indictment, charge sheet or other charging document; and
- (iii) a record of the case comprised of a summary of the evidence available to the Requesting State, together with identification evidence, that would be sufficient to justify the committal for trial of the person sought, if the conduct had occurred in the Requested State.
