

The Department of External Affairs announced today that Mr. Marc Baudouin, Vice-President (Special Programs) of the Canadian International Development Agency will lead the Canadian delegation at a Conference organized by the Agence de Coopération Culturelle et Technique. Mr. Yves Michaud, Commissioner General for Cooperation in the Quebec Department of Intergovernmental Affairs, will represent Quebec within the Canadian delegation.

The purpose of this meeting will be to examine ways whereby the Agence could intervene towards developing cooperation amongst countries of the Third World.

The Canadian delegation will consist of the following:

Representative:	Mr. Marc Baudouin, Vice-President (Special Programs) of the Canadian International Development Agency
Canada-Quebec:	Mr. Yves Michaud, Commissioner General for Cooperation in the Quebec Department of Intergovernmental Affairs
Delegates:	Mr. Michel Chaloult, Quebec Department of Intergovernmental Affairs