

- 2 -

In the face of this complex crisis, Minister Landry stressed the responsibility of all countries in the subregion and the potential role of regional agencies in maintaining the ceasefire. She also expressed the hope that the countries in the region would redouble their efforts to resolve the refugee problem that increasingly threatens to destabilize the entire Great Lakes subregion.

- 30 -

For more information, media representatives may contact:

Media Relations Office
External Affairs and International Trade Canada
(613) 995-1874