of Canadian Army in other commands.

(2) Where the Officer Commanding a Command mentioned in subsection one considers that the services of parts of the Canadian Army in commands other than his command are necessary or desirable for the purpose of suppressing or preventing the riot or disturbance mentioned in the requisition, he shall notify the Chief of the General Staff of the number of officers and men, and of the equipment therefor, that he requires, as to which the Officer Commanding a Command shall be the sole judge; and upon being so notified the Chief of the General Staff may call out such parts of the Canadian Army and provide such equipment as in his judgment are available to meet the requirements of the Officer Commanding a Command and shall cause them to be despatched to the Officer Commanding a Command. 10 15 20

Call out
of navy
and air force.

(3) Where the Officer Commanding a Command mentioned in subsection one has called out or caused to be called out any part of the Canadian Army in aid of the civil power, and considers that the services of any part of the Royal Canadian Navy or of the Royal Canadian Air Force are necessary or desirable for the purpose of assisting that part of the Canadian Army so called out, he may address to the Minister, through the Chief of the General Staff, a request stating the nature and extent of the assistance from the Royal Canadian Navy or from the Royal Canadian Air Force which in the circumstances the Officer Commanding a Command requires; and the Chief of the Naval Staff or the Chief of the Air Staff, as the case may be, if the Minister so directs, shall call out such part of the Royal Canadian Navy or of the Royal Canadian Air Force, and equipment therefor, as the Minister considers necessary or desirable for the purpose of meeting the request. 25 30 35
