

National Defence—Con.Appropriations—Con.

Cash appropriation of $142,000,000, lapse of unexpired portion, 298

Information, 161-62

Lack of, 427

Armament and munitions. See also Canadian Arsenal Limited

Increase in cost, 303

Armed forces

Adequate to meet present needs, 370

Appropriations, 428-33

Contributions to civilian welfare, 104-05

Decisions about formation and use to be made by the government and the House of Commons, 680. See also Parliament

Defence, for, 335-36. See also under this title, Defence of Canada, and below, Permanent force

Dependents' allowance, 405-06

No return to former system, 498

Establishment, increase in, 101, 341-44

Expenditures, increase in, statement of Mr. Abbott, 269-71

Housing. See under this title, Housing Inadequacy of, 470, 472, 484-85

Limited and slow expansion of, 519

Must be larger and ready for instant action in case of invasion of Canada, 219

Permanent force. See also Royal Canadian Air Force; Royal Canadian Navy and under this title, Army

Not a professional police force to deal with affairs of other countries, 304-05

To provide a training nucleus and a defence force, 309-13, 321-25, 336-37

Personnel

And equipment, new, dates of readiness, 314

Irresponsibility of some with regard to personal privileges, 338-39

Placing on active service

Authorization by P.C. 4365, tabled, 528

By order in council, 440-41. See also Canadian Forces Bill

To meet commitments under North Atlantic treaty or United Nations charter, 488-90

Postwar reorganization, 104

Preparedness to meet obligations, 321

Program of expansion, 323

Rates of pay, 410

Reserve. See under this title, Reserve forces

Sending to Europe, 326, 653

Strength, 340

Increase, 303-04, 341

Summary of work being done to accelerate development of, 322-23

National Defence—Con.Armed forces—Con.

Training, 337-38, 686. See also above, Permanent force

Unification, 86-89, 140

Armoury for Sarnia, Ont., 402

Army

"Agile home guard", 256

Appropriations, 410-15

Armoured division

Or infantry division and armoured brigade, reference of Mr. Claxton, 323-26

Tremendous cost of, 327

Armoured regiments, 431

Brigade group. See under this title, Brigade group

Defence force

Division

Hardly enough in present world situation, 343

Not needed at present in Canada, 326, 366-67

Requirements for raising of, 351-52

Of 5,000, 426

Inadequacy of, 398, 600

Division in Europe would cost too much, 326

Dual service army, 132

Equipment, 102

Not fully trained operational formation, 398

Permanent force

Defence and training role, 313

Not stay-at-home army, 337

Strength, 325-26, 426

Royal 22nd. See under this title, Brigade group

Two-army system, 343

Artillery for St. John's, Nfld., 429

Atomic attack, 236-37

Atomic weapons, training in use of, 256-57

Bombs and ammunition. See Canadian Arsenal Limited

Brigade group and special force. See also under this title, Airborne brigade and Special force

Constituents, 326-27, 429

Preparedness, 335-37, 351

Royal 22nd regiment, 320-21, 327

Training, 327

British Columbia, defence program. See under this title, Pacific coast

Brockville, Ont., officer training camp, 352-53

Building up as quickly as possible, 129

Burden of, unequal distribution a threat to national unity, 343

Camp Ipperwash, cadet training at, 402-03

Choice between chocolates and guns, 631, 678

Civil aircraft, reserve, 417

Civil defence. See that title