

Effect of Budgetary Proposals

greatest problems Canada has yet had to face in its history. Over a number of years I have had the opportunity to participate in the development of many other countries. I have seen their strengths and their weaknesses, both in their natural and their human resources. I have no hesitation in saying that Canada, its opportunities and its future potential are second to none. I am dismayed, indeed I despair when I see the terrible record of under-achievement written into our history during the Trudeau years.

The leader of the NDP, speaking in this debate, spoke of the failure of this government's policies to date, concluding therefore that a much bolder step should have been taken. In his words, "the government did not have sufficient guts and imagination to pour at least another $1 billion into the economy as it could and should have done". If he supports this government, where are his guts?

An hon. Member: He hasn't any.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Bawden: In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, I turn to the NDP and remind them of what their leader has said over and over again: we are not going to change our position whatever the consequences may be.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

[Translation]

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. It being nine forty-five o'clock, it is my duty, pursuant to section (9) of Standing Order 58 to interrupt these proceedings and forthwith put every question necessary to dispose of the motion now before the House.

[English]

Accordingly, the question is on the motion of Mr. Stanfield. All those in favour will please say yea.

Some hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Speaker: All those opposed will please say nay.

Some hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Speaker: In my opinion the nays have it.

And more than five members having risen:

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Stanfield) which was negatived on the following division:

• (2150)
