CALL FOR REVOCATION OF STATEMENT—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Stanley Hudecki (Hamilton West): Madam Speaker, in accordance with the provisions of Standing Order 43 I move, seconded by the hon. member for London-Middlesex (Mr. Bloomfield):

That the Dominion Life Assurance Company be asked by this Parliament to revoke the irresponsible and misleading speculative statement which it widely distributed and which provoked anxiety and distress among thousands of Canadian citizens by suggesting, without any basis of truth—

Mr. Clark: Except for the budget speech.

Mr. Hudecki:

—that home owners may be taxed on imputed rent by the government.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

FINANCE

IMPUTED RENTAL INCOME—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Gordon Towers (Red Deer): Madam Speaker, I rise to take exception to remarks attributed to the Minister of Finance (Mr. MacEachen) and the Minister of Public Works (Mr. Cosgrove) with regard to imputed rent. These hon. gentlemen attempted to deflect the blame for this insidious tax grab on home owners by accusing the president of Dominion Life Assurance of scare tactics. The facts are that imputed rent is spelled out on pages 5 and 31 of the budget document entitled "An Analysis of Federal Tax Expenditures for Individuals," and is totally the creation of this mob of socialist sheep in wolves' clothing across the aisle. I therefore move, seconded by the hon. member for Pembina (Mr. Elzinga):

That, as well as getting off the backs of Canadians, the finance minister and the Minister of Public Works get off the back of the president of Dominion Life Assurance and own up to the public that the seed for the imputed rent idea came from government discussions and budget papers.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

S.O. 43

THE PRIME MINISTER

MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Gordon Taylor (Bow River): Madam Speaker, whereas Prime Minister Trudeau and his Liberals are trying their best—

Some hon. Members: Order. Order.

Mr. Taylor: —to kill co-operative federalism in Canada having stabbed it in the belly with compulsory metric—

Madam Speaker: Order. Order. Would the hon. member read that first sentence again? I think he will want to change one word.

Mr. Taylor: The Right Hon. Prime Minister, Mr. Trudeau, and his Liberals—

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Mr. Taylor: —and his Liberals are trying their best to kill co-operative federalism in Canada. They have stabbed it in the belly with compulsory metric; in the lungs with civilian internment camps; in the throat with gun laws; in the heart with the national energy policy, and in the brain with the November 12 budget. They are now considering a final blow to the kidneys by taxing home owners for the imputed rent on their own homes. I therefore move, seconded by the hon. member for Okanagan North (Mr. Dantzer):

That this House demands the resignation of the right hon. the Prime Minister at once. A general election must be called before the Liberals completely destroy this country and kill co-operative federalism.

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

PROTECTION OF ONTARIO MOTORISTS AGAINST TRANSPORTATION OF HAZARDOUS GOODS—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Ian Deans (Hamilton Mountain): Madam Speaker, under the provisions of Standing Order 43 I move, seconded by the hon. member for Oshawa (Mr. Broadbent):

That the Minister of Transport make a statement on motions explaining why the motoring public in Ontario is being denied the benefit of the Ontario regulations which would require common carriers to improve vehicle safety as it affects the transportation of hazardous goods.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?
