

Routine Proceedings

Madam Deputy Speaker: I cannot take a point of order once a motion has been put. I will recognize the hon. member for Shefford later.

The House has heard the terms of the motion. Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

Motion agreed to.

[Translation]

Mr. Lapierre: Madam Speaker, I would simply like to point out to the Parliamentary Secretary that it is much easier for us to give consent to motions members opposite have had the decency to give notice of than to motions we have never seen. I notice the Deputy Prime Minister is nodding. I know, this approach is so much easier for them and much less degrading too.

Mr. Cooper: Madam Speaker, I wish to acknowledge the hon. member's intervention and thank him for his co-operation and, as usual, I will do everything I can to co-operate with him in a precedent setting manner.

Madam Deputy Speaker: The hon. parliamentary secretary had another motion.

CUSTOMS ACT

REFERRAL OF SECTION 168 TO SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Mr. Albert Cooper (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of State and Leader of the Government in the House of Commons): Madam Speaker, I move:

That pursuant to section 168 of an act respecting Customs, Chapter I, Second Supplement, Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, a special committee of the House undertake a comprehensive review of the provisions and operation of this act and submit a report no later than March 1, 1991; that this special committee be appointed, at the latest, five sitting days after the adoption of this motion, and that the membership be composed of eight members; that the said special committee shall have the powers of the standing committee as per Standing Order 108(1).

I did hear my friend correct me. That should have read March 1, 1992. I thank the hon. member from Saint-Denis.
