Mr. Barrette—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the question of issuing bilingual state currency, notes and bonds should be referred to a Special Committee consisting of Messrs. Hackett, Gobeil, Bourgeois, Bell (St. Antoine), Nicholson, Gott, Plunkett, Price, Malcolm, Ralston, Lapointe, Cardin, Casgrain, Rinfret, and Lucas, with power to send for papers, summon witnesses and report from time to time.

Mr. Reid—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—Whereas, goods or services between nations or people can only be paid for either by other goods or services, or by some unit of value acceptable to those desiring such goods or services, and which unit of value has for ages been the precious metals, silver and gold;

And Whereas, for centuries past, silver was the only precious metal used, both as currency and as the unit of value for the interchange of goods and services;

And Whereas, latterly, gold was alone used by the leading nations of the world as the one unit of value for the exchange of goods and services and for the issuing of paper currency;
