

Let the Canadian Government and people go steadily onward, and by every energy and sympathy build up great national industries and interests, neither doubting themselves nor their resources, but rather cultivating in every department of trade and commerce, and in the hearts of the people, that national pride in national products so characteristic of Englishmen and Americans. Following such a course Canada must soon develop not only in her Iron Industry, but in every department of national life.

