

NEW WORKS ON INDIA AND THE EAST—

Continued.

The Defence of Lucknow: A STAFF-OFFICER'S DIARY.
By Capt. THOS. F. WILSON, 13th Bengal N. I., Assistant-Adjutant-General.

Sixth Thousand. With Plan of the Residency. Small post 8vo., price 2s. 6d.

"Unadorned and simple, the story is, nevertheless, an eloquent one. This is a narrative not to be laid down until the last line has been read."—Leader.

"The Staff-Officer's Diary is simple and brief, and has a special interest, inasmuch as it gives a fuller account than we have elsewhere seen of those operations which were the chief human means of salvation to our friends in Lucknow. The Staff-Officer brings home to us, by his details, the nature of that underground contest, upon the result of which the fate of the beleaguered garrison especially depended."—Examiner.

"We commend the Staff-Officer's Diary for its unostentatious relation of facts, recorded with a degree of distinctness that vouches for the authenticity of the writer's statement."—Press.

"The Staff-Officer supplies exact military information with brevity and distinctness."—Globe.

Tiger-Shooting in India. By LIEUTENANT WILLIAM
RICE, 25th Bombay N. I.

Super Royal 8vo. With Twelve Plates in Chroma-lithography. 21s. cloth.

"These adventures, told in handsome large print, with spirited chroma-lithographs to illustrate them, make the volume before us as pleasant reading as any record of sporting achievements we have ever taken in hand."—Athenaeum.

"A remarkably pleasant book of adventures during several seasons of 'large game' hunting in Rajpootana. The twelve chroma-lithographs are very valuable accessories to the narrative; they have wonderful spirit and freshness."—Globe.

"A good volume of wild sport, abounding in adventure, and handsomely illustrated with coloured plates from spirited designs by the author."—Examiner.

The Commerce of India with Europe, and its Political Effects. By B. A. IRVING, Esq.

Post 8vo, price 7s. 6d. cloth.

"Mr. Irving's work is that of a man thoroughly versed in his subject. It is a historical handbook of the progress and vicissitudes of European trade with India."—Economist.

*Views and Opinions of Brigadier-General
Jacob, C.B.* Edited by Captain LEWIS PELLY.

Demy 8vo, price 12s. cloth.

"The statesmanlike views and broad opinions enunciated in this work would command attention under any circumstances, but coming from one of such experience and authority they are doubly valuable, and merit the consideration of legislators and politicians."—Star.

"The facts in this book are worth looking at. If the reader desires to take a peep into the interior of the mind of a great man, let him make acquaintance with the 'Views and Opinions of General Jacob.'"—Globe.

"This is truly a gallant and soldierly book; very Napoleonian in its self-confidence, in its capital sense, and in its devotedness to professional honour and the public good. The book should be studied by all who are interested in the choice of a new government for India."—Daily News.

Papers of the late Lord Metcalfe. Selected and Edited by J. W. KAYE. Demy 8vo, price 16s. cloth.

"We commend this volume to all persons who like to study State papers, in which the practical sense of a man of the world is joined to the speculative sagacity of a philosophical statesman. No Indian library should be without it."—Press.

The Life of Mahomet and History of Islam to the Era of the Hegira. By WILLIAM MUIR, Esq., Bengal Civil Service. Two volumes 8vo, price 32s. cloth.

"The most perfect life of Mahomet in the English language, or perhaps in any other. The work is at once learned and interesting, and it cannot fail to be eagerly perused by all persons having any pretensions to historical knowledge."—Observer.
