

value with reference to certain parts of the English law, on which that of the colony is based.

The Editors have been careful to retain the valuable notes of Mr. C. S. Greaves, Q.C., editor of the Third and Fourth Editions, and draftsman of the Criminal Law Consolidation Acts of 1861. The cases marked MSS. C. S. G. are from his collection. Those marked MS. H. S. are from the collection of Mr. Horace Smith, editor of the Sixth Edition. Those marked MS. Bayley, J., are from a collection made by Mr. Justice Bayley.

References to series of reports not mentioned in the text have so far as possible been inserted in the Table of Cases. Repealed statutes (save in a few special cases) are not included in the Table of Statutes; but in the notes to existing Statutes will be found references to the former enactments which they supersede.

The Editors have to thank Mr. H. D. Roome, Barrister-at-Law, for valuable aid in preparing the Table of Cases.

W. F. CRAIES.

L. W. KERSHAW.