

The World Famine

and

The Duty of Canada

FACTS.—In my recent pamphlet, "The Disruption of Canada," I quoted authority to prove:

1. "That the world faces a food situation that is nothing short of appalling" (Dr. Robertson).

2. "That the world's supply of food is not sufficient to feed the world's armies and the civilian population too" (Lord Northcliffe).

3. "That it is now vital for the United Kingdom and the Allies in Europe to obtain from Canada foodstuffs in far larger quantities than under peace conditions" (Lord Rhondda).

"That unless the Allies in Europe are able to import the supplies necessary for feeding their armies and their civil populations, victory may slip from our united grasp" (Lord Rhondda).

4. That "the fighting efficiency of the Allied forces will be impaired unless Canada awakens to the seriousness of the food problem" (Mr. Hanna).

5. That "what we ask from the United States and Canada, we cannot procure elsewhere" (Lord Rhondda).

6. "That the Allies are depending on the continent of North America to a far greater extent than ever before" (Can. Food Bulletin No. 3).

7. "That there are difficulties in the way. One of them is the shortness of help, which is a very serious question" (Mr. Crerar).

8. That the shortage of food is "owing to the shortage
