THIS LOOKS LIKE GRAVE INJUSTICE. Water Checked by Meters Costs Seven Times More Than Unchecked.

Surprise was expressed at the meeting of the works committee when Commissioner Harris reported that those who are being provided with city water, unchecked by meters, are paying for it seven times less than those who have meters.

Controlled O'Neill will move in the board of control that all water supplied to outsiders be checked by meters, and be charged for at a rate that will provide a profit to the city.

While racing around the block on a bicycle, with another boy, yesterday afternoon, Murdock Paul, 14, 553 Gladstone avenue, narrowly escaped serious injury when his bicycle skidded in rounding the corner of Harbor and Borden streets, and he was thrown under the feet of a horse attached to a Nelson ice cream company wagon.

NO FRILLS ABOUT PRINCE'S VISIT

Albert, Second Son of Britain's King, Passed Thru City Yesterday.

Visited Falls With Cadet Companions and Left For Kingston.

The king's son, Prince Albert Frederick George, came to Toronto yesterday and very few people knew about it until he had gone. There was no gathering at the Union Station to greet him, simply because practically no one but the railway officials knew he was coming.

Prince Albert, a handsome chap of eighteen years, the second son of the monarch of the British Empire, fair, with bronzed skin and blue eyes, dressed in a natty sailor suit, arrived here shortly after dawn in a C. P. R. special train from Montreal. He was one of 59 cadets of the training ship Cumberland. The party was taking a trip to Niagara Falls. They returned here last night and went to Kingston, and from that city they will sail down among the thousand islands to Montreal, en route to their ship.

Usually if anybody with a title comes to town there is a delegation of civic officials at the depot to give him the glad hand. But, in this case, the prince was traveling privately, as a sailor, and the city received no intimation that he was coming, so there was no welcome. The train stopped at the foot of Yonge street in the early morning and at 7.30 the cadets, the prince bringing up the rear, trooped down to the wharf to the steamer, only a few sleepy-eyed officials, reporters and camera men knew that a prince of the royal blood was one of the party.

Crowd Was There. However, it was different last night when the boat docked at 8.30. There was a large crowd at the wharf. They may not have seen the prince, because he was dressed the same as his 58 companions, but they had the satisfaction of seeing a gang of healthy looking sailors-to-be in the British navy. The cadets walked from the wharf to their train, which was stalled at the foot of Yonge street, and they left the city within a short time.

BANDS AT HANLAN'S. Grenadiers Saturday and the Highlanders on Sunday.

Special concerts will be given at Hanlan's Point this afternoon and evening by the Grenadiers band and on Sunday, afternoon and evening, the band of the 48th Highlanders, under the direction of Lieut. Slatter, will furnish the music. A number of novel amusement features have been added to the Point this season, in addition to those that were in operation last summer. Speedy, the reckless high diver, is still taking chances every afternoon, by diving 210 feet into a small tank containing but three feet of water. There will be two International League ball games this afternoon between Buffalo and Toronto, for one admission.

KICKED BY HORSE. Murdock Paul, Fourteen, Badly Injured Yesterday.

DEGREES CONFERRED UPON GRADUATES

Over Seven Hundred Students Spent Last Day at University.

A PORTRAIT UNVEILED. Sir John Boyd Presented a Painting of Chancellor Sir William Meredith.

More than 700 of the country's young hopefuls paraded up the aisle of Convocation Hall yesterday afternoon, mounting the platform, bowed before Sir William Meredith and had a sheepskin placed around his or her neck by the beadle of the University of Toronto. It was the annual commencement day of the university, and these aforesaid hopefuls, having graduated, received their degrees. On the platform was a distinguished gathering of men who had graduated from the college years before and now composed the board of governors and senate.

After this ceremony, which took the greater part of the afternoon, the chancellor, Sir William Meredith, had an honor conferred upon his portrait, which was hanging to the left of the front of the hall, which was presented to the university by Sir John Boyd, and unveiled by Miss Elizabeth Ramsay, the little granddaughter of the chief justice.

Parade Across Lawn. Previous to the ceremony in Convocation Hall there was a procession of the staff and undergraduates from the west hall of the main building across the campus. The chancellor led the procession, was immediately followed by the staff and then came the co-eds and the men. Before two o'clock the hall was crowded to its capacity.

Honorary Degrees. The following honorary degrees were presented: Doctor of Laws (Honoris Causa), Daniel Miner Gordon, M.A., D. L.L.D., presented by the president of the university, James Alexander McLean, M.A., Ph.D., L.L.D., presented by the principal of university colleges, Frank Fairchild Westbrook, M.A., M. D., C.M., L.L.D., presented by the dean of the faculty of medicine, Rev. Arthur Edward Jones, S.J., presented by Dr. J. H. Coyne.

Doctor of Science (Honoris Causa): Thomas Kennard Thomson, C.E., presented by the dean of the faculty of applied science and engineering, Vivian Ellsworth Pound, Ph.D., presented by Prof. MacLennan.

Plenty of Fun. The proceedings, which tended to become dull, were enlivened through by the good-natured calls by the rival school singing and whistling. For instance, the Ontario Agricultural College "grads" left their seats to walk to the platform the Toronto boys shouted:

"Oats, onions, celery and squash. 'O.A. College, well, by gosh. And following this there were many bawdy songs, the moo of the cow, the cluck of the hen, and so on. "Bringing in the Sheaves" was whistled delightfully.

At another time a blushing maiden, all alone, headed the procession, which were a number of the male grad whistled a catchy "Just One Girl."

When the pharmacy graduates trooped up to the front the other graduates made a hissing noise like that which you usually hear from soda fountain. In fact all the songs are freely rendered.

After the conferring of degrees there was the usual garden party on the university lawn.
