THREE RUGBY FOOTBALL UNIONS MEET TODAY

O. R. F. U. in Toronto, Big Four in Hamilton, and Quebec Union in Montreal.

The obstacle has slunk away and Hugh Gall will be duly proclaimed today secretary of the Ontario Rugby Football Union. which should soon work back to its ferner front rank with the other unions. The annual meeting takes place at the King Edward Hotel.

The Interprovincial meets at Hamilton, and the Quebec Union at Montreal. On Saturday, Jan. 10, the annual meeting of the Canadian Union will be held in Montreal, when the various suggestions as to the rules will be finally attended to. The reduction in the number of players, the new onside rule making the game absolutely dangerous, and a new scoring proposition in regard to this will be dealt with.

The Hamilton Spectator has the key to the dislodgement of the O.R.F.U. barnacle that denied having asked for an application from any of the Alert crowd for an O.R.F.U. franchise. As a matter of fact, The Spectator declares a formal request was made over the long-distance phone with a former Alert and a former member of the O.R.F.U. executive for an application either in the name of the East End Y.M.C.A. or the Rambiers A.C. And in the meantime, the Parkdale crowd got the upper hand in O.R.F.U. matters, and The Spectator says it will prove wellow the property of the Union.

Presumably, as a result of the cloud under which his amateur status rests, because of assertions made in eastern newspapers that he had played professional baseball in the Maritime Provinces. Joe Donnelly, the big McGill line-plunger, announced yesterday in Montreal that he would not take any further part in sport. Donnelly had been expected to figure as McGill's best wrestler in the intercollegiate mat tournament this winter, and is also an expert basketball player, who will be greatly missed from the red and white five.

The Ottawa Football Club broke even on the season fust closed, according to the financial statement handed down at the wind-up meeting last night. It had been calculated that they would finish about $560 in the hole, but the balance showed a few dollars on the right side. Expenses were higher than ever before, as the club usually carried about twenty-eight players and a few executive officers. Had it not been for the last game against the Argonauts they would have been about $600 head. The Argonauts were the greatest drawing cards, over $2200 being taken in when they played there, while the Tiger gate reached $1900. Montreals was the smallest, being about $700.

The McGill Football Club, whose team won the Intercollegiate champlonship, concluded the season with a surplus of $305.24, as compared with a deficit of $471.13 last year.

This afternoon at Rosedale at 3.00 p.m., Sunderland and Devonians will clash in the final of the Brigden Cup series, and they will have a battle royal for the possession of the silverware. Sunderlands are odds-on favorites by reason of that season, but the Devonians have been comford in glike a house afire this season, and should be ready to go the limit this afternoon. Both teams will be at full strength and Referee Dobbs will handle the game. This will practically wind up the season, altho there are a couple of pullor fixtures yet to be played.

The Dunnville Club has been transferred from group No. 3 (with Hamilton, Hamilton Centennials, Simcoe and Tillsonburg), to group No. 4, with Niagara Falls, Niagara Falls Tecumsehs, Welland and Port Colborne.

Manager George Kennedy of the Canadien N.H.A. team, is willing to trade Newsy Lalonde to Ottawa for Darragh and Ronan. All these are holdouts, and the threats implied in the trades have been made for the purpose of bringing them into their respective folds. Ottawa would like to get Hyland and Odie Cleghorn for its recalcitrants, but the Wanderers are hardly likely to let them go.

A meeting for the purpose of reorganizing a hockey club at Oakville was held last night at the Hotel Gibson. There was a large and enthusiastic attendance. It was decided that the name of the club should be the Oakville Athletic Association. The following officers were elected: President, Alfred Hillmer; vicepresident, Hugh Wilson; secretary-treasurer, Wm. Scott; first team manager, R. W. McDougall.

A meeting of Anglican Hockey League will be held at St. Matthew's Church, First avenue, on Monday night at 8 o'clock, to draw up a schedule for the coming year. All teams wishing to enter should send one delegate to the meeting and write Secretary Fairweather at 228 Sumach street, or Mr. Wilson, 150 DeGrassi street, the president, if possible.

Strong objection is being raised at Queen's with reference to the trip of the hockey team during the Christmas vacation to Haileybury, Sudbury, New York, Cleveland and Detroit. It seems that selection of players is in the hands of a clique, and students are up in arms, as the best men available are not being taken along. The athletic committee is to meet this afternoon to take the matter up. It is understood that the committee will insist on organizing and controlling the trip, otherwise it will be called off.

The Argonauts have arranged an exhibition game with the Varsity Senior O. H. A. team for Saturday afternoon, Dec. 20. This will likely be the first local game. The scullers will hold their first practice at the Arena on Monday night, 7.30 to 8.30. Manager Laidlaw is satisfied with the showing of his team in Hamilton.

Paris will play Hamilton an exhibition

Hamilton Herald: While not at all dissatisfied with the grouping, the Hamilton intermediates would like very much to be transferred into the group with Niagara Falls. Welland and Port Colborne. Past experience on trips to Simcoe has frightened the locals to such an extent that they would prefer being able to get back into Hamilton on the same night.

The pro. hockey teams are putting sale season tickets at Spaiding's, 707 Yonge street, this morning. This will mean that fans will be able to buy the same seats for every game at a reduced rate by getting a season ticket.

smoker and concert at Occident Hall last evening and a very large number of players and their friends were present. President Guthrie occupied the chair, and President T. Watson and Secretary T. Robertson of the D.E.A. were also present. The program was a very lengthy one, and a great array of first-class talent entertained thruout the evening. Among those that assisted were Messrs. Wenthorne, Jennings, Lochart, McEwan, Milton, Calver, Balsmith, Root, Williams, Willard, Perry, Carpenter, Marlboro Quartet and Currie.

The international teams were presented with their caps and the English team, the winners, with The Star trophy. The Edgar cup was presented to the Caledonians and Overseas were the rectpients of the league cup for winning the first division. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all and the smoker was vouched for as a real success.

SOAPING THE PITCHER'S BOX

SOAPING THE PITCHER'S BOX

Ever hear of "soaping" the pitcher's box? It's a neat little trick that players have been known to resort to when they are anxious to put the binger on the control of the opposing twirler. The loose dirt around the mound is generous by saturated with soap in such a way as to make the soil there quite slippery. Most every pitcher is fond of rubbing his hand in the dust that he may get a firmer grip on the pill. Naturally, as you will see at once, soap mixed in with the dirt wouldn't help a bit. In fact, if a first class, A No. 1 job of soaping is done, the twirler will find great difficulty in 32-ting the ball anywhere in the general direction of the plate. The moisture on the twirler's hands mixed with particles of soap make the ball very slippery, indeed. Pittsburg players tried it on Bugs Raymond one day when he was pitching for St. Louis. Somehow it didn't work, and instead of playing hob with his control, after the first inning or so he seemed to be getting better all the time. After the game Bugs walked over to the Pittsburg bench and poured a handful of rosin into the hand of Fred Clarke. "It'll stop all the soap in the world," said Bugs with a snicker. He had discovered the soap in the first inning and had provided himself with the rosin for the rest of the game. Al Demarce, the Claut pitcher, uses rosin continually, which explains his habit of putting his hand in his hip pocket before every pitch.
