

THE REVISED STATUTES OF CANADA.

revision), 173 (all these being, of course, Statutes respecting matters now subject to the exclusive control of the Parliament of Canada, and passed before the coming into force of the B. N. A. Act, 1867, after which no such Provincial Statute could be legally passed); and of public general Statutes of the Parliament of Canada, 612; making the total number of Statutes so repealed, in whole or in part, 1294.

Schedule B:—"Acts and parts of Acts of a public general nature, which affect Canada, and have relation to matters not within the legislative authority of Parliament, or in respect to which the power of legislation is doubtful, or has been doubted, and which have in consequence not been consolidated; and also Acts of a public general nature, which for other reasons have not been considered proper Acts to be consolidated." In this table the portion of each Act as to which the Commissioners entertained the doubts mentioned is given in the outer column, and the subject of the Act is shown by the title given in the centre column, except as to the Act 29 Vict. (1865, 2nd session) of the Revised Statutes for Lower Canada, as to which the outer column indicates only the numbers of the Articles of the Civil Code of Lower Canada brought into force by proclamation under the said Act, which the Commissioners, for reasons other than those mentioned in the heading to the said Schedule B, have not considered proper Acts to be consolidated. It may be useful to mention here the subjects of said Articles, which are as follows:

All the Acts and parts of Acts, or of the Code, mentioned in Schedule B will be found in a third volume, prepared by the Commissioners and in the hands of the printer, but not yet ready for distribution.

The articles respecting bills and notes are referred to by the Commissioners in a note on chapter 123, p. 1655. All the articles above mentioned are unquestionably law in the Province of Quebec, and those on bills and notes and shipping are more especially interesting to commercial men, as rights may exist or be affected by them or under them in any
