

CONTENTS.

vii

	PAGE
Ottawas,	251
Pontiac—Their Celebrated Chieftain and Orator,	252
Californians,	254
Creeks,	255
Cherokees,	256
Shawanees,	258
Tecumseh,	259
Red Jacket—His Eloquence and Character,	262
Indian Speeches,	267
Speech of Logan,	268
Speech of the Five Iroquois Chiefs,	269
Speech of Half King,	270
Speech of Petchenanas,	271
Speech of Captain Pipe,	272
The Answer of Little Turtle,	274
Speech of Red Jacket to a Missionary,	275
Speech of Red Jacket about the Witch Doctrine,	278
Speech of Farmer's Brother,	279
Speech of Corn Planter,	280
Speech of Tecumseh,	282
Speech of Black Thunder,	283
Speech of Metea,	285
Speech of Keewatagoushikum,	287
Speech of Black Hawk,	289
Speech of the Onondagas and Cayugas,	291
Speech of Canassatego,	295
Speech of Gachradodow,	299
Character of the Five Nations, by Colden,	301
America Peopled by a more Civilized Race than the present Red Indians,	307
Indian Antiquities, according to Governor Clinton,	314
The Mexicans are the Remains of a more Polished Nation than the North American Indians,	322
Conclusion,	340