

am informed, from good Hands, this is to come very soon under the Inspection of our H—e, I shall add only this, that great Circumspection should be observed in the Choice of that Officer who is to be invested with the Command in Chief of our Troops in that Part: for as a good Intelligence between the different Provinces, and in particular between the Assemblies and Governors, will diligently plan and provide for the Safety of our Possessions; so the Execution of these Plans, by Officers who have Heads as well as Hearts, will leave little Room for future Pamphleteers, pretended Geographers, and News-Writers, to animadvert upon the Incroachments of the French in North America.

This, my Lord, is what I, and every Briton should, wish to see take Place; and if, by these Means, the War might be prevented from reaching the Continent of Europe, we might very reasonably expect to see it terminated very soon, to the Glory and Advantage of Great Britain and
