

It shall consequently be the duty of the director—

- (1) To quarterly collect from the treasury of His Royal Majesty and the realm, at the request of the forest administration, the funds assigned to salaries and maintenance of the institute; to dispose of these funds according to regulations, and for each calendar year account for their disposal, which accounts shall be delivered before the end of the next following February to the forest administration for auditing;
- (2) To watch over the care and maintenance of the ground, buildings, nurseries, archives, library, collections, tools, implements, and other movables of the institute, and to see to it that complete lists of the same are made out and always at hand. He shall, however, according to what is stated below, have right to suitably distribute between the teachers the administration and care of collections, tools, and the movables;
- (3) Having examined the certificates produced and the amount of knowledge possessed by the candidates for admission to admit them as pupils, and, according to statements of the teachers, separately for each branch, issue certificates to pupils who have finished their course, and to propose to the forest administration the distribution of the assigned stipends among such pupils who shall be considered most deserving of the same;
- (4) To issue regulations as well for the maintenance of good order and morality within the institute as for the suitable course of teaching and the manner of imparting the same, for which purpose the director shall make out a regular table of instruction, so that the business be properly distributed between the teachers, and the time advantageously employed to the benefit of the pupils;
- (5) To himself instruct in one of the head branches of forest economy as well as, business permitting, be present at the preliminary examination of the pupils in the other branches;
- (6) To endeavour in every possible manner to promote the knowledge and spread of an improved forest economy and management of the chase within the kingdom, for the purpose of which he must keep himself informed of the progress of the science and technical terms of the forest, even in
