and likely to continue so for some time. Local sentiment is inclined to the bull side, but without better cash demand we do not believe any permanent advance can be sustained.

Oats—There was only a moderate trade in cats to-day. The market ruled firmer, purely in sympathy with the strength in wheat and corn. Receipts keep large and our stocks are piling up. To Discuss Steel Situation.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—A conference of the steel manufacturers of the United States has been called to meet here on Jan. 9 for the purpose of discussing prices and steel conditions. Whether concerted action will be taken looking toward a readjustment of prices downward for the purpose of reviving the slackening demand in the steel trade is not known. Steel plants are running between fifty and sixty per cent. of their capacity at present, and some manufacturers think that lowered steel prices would bring consumers into the market.
