CENTRAL FENCERS WIN FROM Y.W.C.C. TEAM

Guile Ladies Exhibit Splendid Workmanship in Handicap Contest.

Lady fencers of the Y. W. C. C. Fencing Club lost to the T. C. Y. M. C. A. Fencing Club by the narrow margin of six points in twenty-eight bouts, requiring three hours continuous fighting, on Saturday evening.

The large attendance of ladies and gentlemen at the tourney remained until the close, and gave another evidence of the increased popularity which fencing is holding in the minds of those who delight in intelligent athletics. The sport is such as to attract only the highest type, and is truly entitled the "gentlemanly art."

The contest was unique in that it discarded the old theory that the gentle sex sex on the fencing mat. Those who witnessed the fencing were loud in their praises of the ability with which the ladies defended and attacked with lightning rapidity.

Mr. Cochrane of U. C. C., who refereed the contest, explained the conditions under which the contest would be fought, and incidentally mentioned that to Chas. Walters of the T.C.Y.M.C.A. Fencing Club, the amateur fencing champion of Canada and Province of Ontario, was the success of the T.C.Y.M.C.A. Fencing Club and the Y.W.C.C. Fencing Club.

His executive ability has done much to develop the sport in Canada. The Y.W.C.C. Fencing Club is but a young organization, but on this occasion made good its claim that its fencers gave Central fencers, such as Johnson v. McKissock (both of the championship class), some difficulty in scoring; in fact, Miss Irene Johnson defeated Champion Johnson, while Champion McKissock won by one point only. Miss Smith defeated Lightwood after a creditable bout, and Miss Johnson repeated the defeat. Giescke was defeated by Miss Smith, and Miss Winter, but redeemed himself by defeating Miss Wagner and Miss Johnson. Miss Wagner defeated Lockwood and lost to Champion Johnson by one point, but her defence was noticeably strong, altho her returns did not lunge out far enough. Reviewing the contest as a whole, the Central fencers' score would have been considerably reduced had it not been for the work of Champion Johnson and McKissock.

Miss Wagner's form was not surpassed by any, and it was a surprise that she did not score more points. If Miss Wagner would develop more aggressiveness, her results would be better.

Mr. Lightwood displayed delicacy of touch, but was somewhat weak in his defence and attack. His form, combined with his ability, will work to his success. He is a clean fencer.

Miss Johnson, who recently won the elementary medal, again displayed her ability as a swordswoman in the fact of having the least number of points on her team scored against her during the tourney.

Mr. Lockwood and Giescke of Central are elementary men of high order, and with experience will make good. It was pointed out that the advantages of ladies fencing with gentlemen were that it gave speed and endurance to the ladies, and to the gentlemen narrows their attack and develops delicacy of touch, so much required in foil play.

Mr. Cochrane presented the medals to the winning team, T.C.Y.M.C.A., and expressed his appreciation of the quality of the fencing displayed.

The officials, who gave good satisfaction in their decisions, were Messrs. Cochrane, M.C.C., Nordheimer, T.C.Y.M.C.A., C. Fryer, T.C.Y.M.C.A.F.C., Walters, T.C.Y.M.C.A.F.C., and Messrs. McKissock, Johnson, Lightwood, Giescke, Lockwood, and Johnson.

Those qualifying for finals were Messrs. Y.W.C.C.—Miss Johnson, Miss Winter, Miss Smith, T.C.Y.M.C.A.—Messrs. McKissock, Johnson, Giescke, Lockwood, Lightwood, Johnson, and Johnson.

The fencing teams will give an exhibition in class and loose play at Woodgreen Methodist Church, open evening of physical culture, Tuesday evening, Feb. 7.

TORONTO TROTTER WINS $1000 STAKE AT OTTAWA

Nat Ray's Emily Morris Defeats Good Field After Five Heats.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—Eleven heats were trotted at the Central Canada ice races, Saturday afternoon. The unfinished classified race was won by Little Ted, owned by Fred Tracey of Ottawa, who made it three straight.

The $1000 stake, after five heats, went to Nat Ray's Emily Morris. Emily Morris took the first heat, but threw a shoe in the second, which went to Crusader. Crusader also took the third, but Emily Morris came back strong, winning the fourth and fifth with ease. Crusader made second money and Ned Wilkes was third.

The classified for the Silver Foam purse of $300, had a field of five, but it was reduced to four when the judge decided that D. Gilles' Dimity, a Hamilton mare, was not eligible. They ruled out Dimity after the other owners had refused to start against her, maintaining that Dimity was not qualified. The conditions of the race specified that the competing horses must be owned on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway between Sudbury and Ottawa.

Crescent Maid, another of Fred Tracey's took the first and second heats, but Dan K. won the third and the fourth and the fifth fell to Alex. It will be concluded on Monday at 1:30. A fall of snow made the track somewhat heavy, but the racing was of high order. Oregon Maid ran practically unbacked in the classified race, but those who put their money up on Rex and remained faithful to the Ottawa house were rewarded when Rex won the fourth and fifth heats. Ned Wilkes was favorite in the 2.35, which was won by Emily Morris. The 2.35 trot was postponed till Monday.

Chance for Suspended Ball Players.

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Suspended ball players of all leagues governed by the National Association will have an opportunity to present their grievances to the National Baseball Commission, as the result of an order sent J. F. Farrell, secretary of the commission, to-day. The order calls for a complete investigation into circumstances surrounding the practice of suspended players, sometimes on trivial complaints, which is said to have kept many young players out of organized baseball for months. At present there are several hundred players, mostly under contract with the minor leagues, who are barred temporarily from organized baseball because of suspensions.
