Victim Was Forgiving.

It was lucky for Jack Innis that he is, so to say, a bonehead. Otherwise, when he was struck on the head with a hammer by Frank Bowden, an Ita-lian, the doctors believe that he would have been killed, but his skull is very thick and he was not much hurt. The Italian was fined $40 and costs, despite the fact that his victim appeared in police court yesterday morning to forgive him for the assault, which took place at the island Saturday.

The racing will start at two o'clock.

SHOOT DEER TO-DAY.

Mr. Gerard Heintzman and party left yesterday for their thirty-sixth annual hunting trip to New Ontario. The season opens to-day.

Press that, owing to severe injuries to several players, all fixtures nave been cancelled. It is impossible to put a team on the field. "We've had bad luck from the beginning. Four men were hurt in the first three games. The boys were very downhearted at the abandonment of the tour. They have had a good trip and have been well entertained, and all would have been O. K. if we had brought more players."
