Anti-Annexationists Held Meeting in North Toronto and Endorsed Proposal to Have Second Vote

The anti-annextionists held a meeting on Saturday night in North Toronto town hall, and on the motion of Mr. Donnelly, seconded by Mr. W. G. Ellis, the action of the town council in deciding to take a second vote on annexation was endorsed.

Before the meeting commenced, Mr. T. W. Banton, the president of the Ratepayers' Association, explained that as the ratepayers had declared by their votes on July 6, in favor of annexation, it was not within the power of that body to call a meeting to dis-

Banton to take the chair and regard the meeting as merely a public gath-ering; but he declined. C. Adamson was elected chairman, and the above resolution was declared carried. On the advice of Mr. Banton, the friends of annexation declined to discuss the matter, and W. G. Ellis expressed his regret that the opposition had adopted such an attitude, the result being a one-sided meeting, utterly devoid of ny enthusiasm.

The petitions now in circulation by the supporters of annexation should cil tomorrow (Tuesday) night, at 8

FINE CROPS IN RAINY RIVER

Dan Matheson, Late of Bruce County, is Opening Eyes of Western Farmers.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 15.—(Special)-The Rainy River country is proving to be one of the finest agricultural districts in Canada. Dan Matheson of Devlin threshed 1220 bushels of fall wheat from 21 acres on August 4. This works out at more than 58 bushels to the acre. This wheat weighed out 621/2 went 3½ tons to the acre, on land not previously inoculated.

Mr. Matheson is a Canadian from Bruce Country, Ontario, and is one of the best farmers west of the great lakes. He won a diploma at this year's complaining that a large portion of the fruit is worm-eaten and is dropping off the trees. Asked Large Congregation at Massey Hall Yesterday Afternoon to Pray for Moody Church, Chicago, Which, He Said, is Being Attacked for Attacking Him.

In Massey Hall yesterday afternoon before two thousand people, W. R. Newell, the Chicago Bible teacher, offered a brief comment on the attitude of Toronto and Chicago newspapers nexation, it was not within the power of that body to call a meeting to discuss the question. The people were the final court of appeal, and they had already expressed their wishes thruthe ballot box. Mr. Banton then adjourned the meeting until Oct. 5, when the election of officers will take place. The anti-annexationists invited Mr. Banton to take the chair and regard the meeting as merely a public gathering; but he declined. C. Adamson was elected chairman, and the above taken unaware and that the man to whom the assignment was given had fought with his editor for one hour before assuming it. Asked for Prayers.

"I do not believe that the matter came from the Moody Church in Chi-cago. After my breakdown in 1989, while I was with two Christian brothers, the Moody Church wanted to quell certain reports about me. Dur-ing that time I could not sleep for months. The matter eventuated when months. The matter eventuated when a man whose doctrine I questioned ebtained power. Friends, I want your prayers for the Moody Church. It needs them now since the Chicago papers have attacked it for its attack upon me. Not that the Moody Church is to blame, but because of certain members on the committee, and not even the committee itself as a whole. A man had powers and influence on that committee that he should not that committee that he should not have had.

"I want to say, too, that the Moody Institute is separate from the church and under a different board."

Tribute to Press.

Mr. Newell paid tribute to the press generally. "I want to say again," he said, "that the attitude of the papers of Chicago and Toronto, standing for the community, has been a surprising thing to me. I am not flattering the the acre. This wheat weighed out 62½ pounds to the bushel.
