PIRATE LEFT-HANDERS Three Good Ones and All Are Showing Good Form in South.

Jacksonville, April 5.—Beezek, the Pirate manager, has three left-handers, two of whom are sure to be retained and possibly the third, Wilbur Cooper, of course, being about the best southpaw in the league, does not have to battle for his berth.

The other two are Bob Steele, formerly of the Cardinals, and Earl Hamilton, late of the Browns. Steele was with the Pittsburgh club during the war and half of 1917 and his credit should be stated that he pitched splendidly.

Mr. Mackay is the owner of nineteen yearlings in the shipment and thirteen of these are by Fitzherbert, winner of $25,000 in purses, and one of the best horses of his day on the American turf.

The others are by Sundridge, Rabelais, Macdonald, Phil Rock, Ramrod and Aveu.

The dams of nearly all are winners or producers of winners, and they are daughters of such horses as St. Frusquin, Medley, Ingless, Uncle, St. Florian and Hastings.

Among the colts from which much is expected is Proconium, a chestnut by Fitzherbert out of La Crique, by Medley, out of Audiance, dam of Whisk Broom. They come from Haras de Epreux, in Normandy.

Mr. Whitney's importation includes five of his own breeding from mares that were in France when the war broke out, and which could not be removed on account of government order. They will be taken to Mr. Whitney's Brookline farm, at Brookline, N.Y.

Five of the young racers in Mrs. Duryea's list are sons and daughters of Duryea, the horse that won the last race for the Derby stakes at Epsom, England, a few weeks before the war was declared.

Mr. Duryea at the Haras de Epreux, in Normandy, France, where fifteen of the yearlings in the importation were foaled.

NOTED ACTRESS WILL REACH CITY TOMORROW Miss Rita Jolivet is expected to reach Toronto tomorrow. She has recently returned from France, where on many occasions she delighted the troops in the hospitals and behind the lines.

She has sung for them and brought cheer into their hearts many times, and those who have heard her have always given her a rapturous reception.

To see her and hear her on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be a splendid treat and a wonderful opportunity. She would be welcome at any time, but particularly so when she is the star in the picture and a survivor of the sinking of the Lusitania, one of the most ruthless atrocities the Germans have carried out.

HOWARD IN TROUBLE. Winnipeg, Man., April 5.—Two men were arrested by the provincial police and charged with sedition for using alleged seditious language regarding the war. They appeared in court this morning and pleaded not guilty. The cases were remanded until Tuesday.

The men are Joseph Corbin, Army Howard, a well-known colored athlete, and Alfred Stone. The statements sworn out against the men charge that they stated that they hoped Germany would win the war.

IMPORTED HORSES ARE TO CUT WIDE SWATH Well-Known American Owners Receive English and French Stock.

New York, April 5.—With the arrival on these shores on Wednesday of two scores of yearlings bred in England and France, the already great number of imported horses, which are cutting a wide swath in the thoroughbred racing of the country, was augmented by sons and daughters of some of the most royally bred stallions and matrons of the land of our allies in the great war.

Owned by Clarence H. Mackay, Harry Payne Whitney, Philip A. Clark and Mrs. Herman B. Duryea, it is the intention of the above to have a majority of the youngsters put under the hammer during the progress of the Saratoga meeting next August.

Mr. Mackay is the owner of nineteen yearlings in the shipment and thirteen of these are by Fitzherbert, winner of $25,000 in purses, and one of the best horses of his day on the American turf.

Three Games, and Not Five, for Stanley Cup

Montreal, April 5.—Frank Patrick, president of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, and manager of the Vancouver team, which recently played off with Toronto for the world's championship, arrived in Montreal this morning and will be a visitor here until Sunday night.

When he leaves for home, in speaking of the recent Stanley Cup games, President Patrick said that in his opinion the series should be limited to three games in place of five, and that the winner of two of the three games be declared the champions.

Five games in any one city in one series is not in the interest of hockey and also too hard on the players, continued Mr. Patrick. Regarding the adoption of a uniform set of rules by the Coast League and the National Hockey association would be willing to adopt a uniform set for Stanley Cup matches, but that they would reserve the right to continue in their own league and play under any rules which they considered beneficial to the sport in the west.

Who asked if he would have a conference with the directors of the National League, Mr. Patrick said: "I have not heard of any meeting, and what would be the use of holding one under the present conditions. Neither of the leagues may be in existence next winter and a meeting would be a waste of time just now." He also said that as far as

LOYALTY TO J. MCGRAW

New York, April 5.—Loyalty to McGraw caused Larry Doyle to refuse a $7000 cash bonus and a two years' contract calling for $18,000 during the recent Federal League-Organized Baseball tangle, says The Tribune.

Larry told the story the other night. "We had just completed our tour of the world and I was in St. Louis on the way to Marlin," he says. "In a cafe there I met a friend who said he wanted to introduce me to some of his friends. They were the St. Louis Federal League magnates, holding a dinner party. They were jubilant, especially since they had just signed Joe Tinker and Mordecai Brown, and things looked promising for the new organization."

"They asked me what I thought of the Federal League future and I told them it might work out. 'Well, if you'll sign a two years' contract with us,' said one of them. 'I'll give you $7000 cash. I want you to sign it right now.' I told them I would have to talk to my manager first. I felt that I owed everything I had come to be in the game to him, and that I had not yet renewed my contract with the Giants. I didn't want to run out on my old manager. I talked with McGraw and never went back to see the Federal magnates again. But they'll never know how that cash tempted me."
