POPE WILL NOT LIVE LONG.

Will Never Hold a Consistory, Says U. S. Archbishon.

New York, Sept. 4.—Archbishop John
J. Keane of Dubuque, Ia., who has just returned from France, to-day said:

"Pope Pius was practically forced on the papal throne. He did not wish to take the responsibility. He will not live long. He does not want to. In my opinion he will never hold a consistory, and the outlook for the creation of an American cardinal is not encouraging.

"The Pope, a few days after his elevation, declared that he would not wish to have a long pontificate. I believe he would active his wishes will be fulfilled.

"If the Pope should decide to honor wish to have a long pontificate. I believe his wishes will be fulfilled.

"The Pope should be the Archbishop of New York and Archbishop Ireland."
