This galaxy of giants are all theists. You couldn't detect one of them who believes in the great unknowable of Herbert Spencer."

Then, turning his attentio to matters of supreme importance to Canada, Sir Wilfrid entered upon a discussion of the position held by the Dominaton in Europe, the importance of the demanciation of the German and Belgian treaties, and the stupidiity of those who argue that these actions on the part of Great Ritarin will not materially assist Canada. "Canada is now beginning an entirely new carcer," he said, "not only in England, but in the whole Continent of Europe. The denunciation of the German and Belgian treaties, as made at the request of Canada and the other self-governing colonles, has without doubt created a profound impression throughout the Continent, and unless I am greatly mistaken, we shall, I anticipate, see a great flow of both capital and population to Canada in the next few years. And yet it is but two or three years ago that the English Government, through Lord Ripon, refused to consider the denunciation of such treaties."

Mr. Nesbitt commenced what proved to be as fine an address as has ever been heard in a St. Catharines court. He earnestly appealed for mercy. "I am not retained in this case by the prisoner." he said. "I have spoken to him very little. I am retained by his wife and family, who still stand up for husband and father, and refuse to desert him. For their sakes do I ask a mitigation of the sentence Your Honor might impose.
