Inder-Secretary for Colonies

Says Discretion in Emigra-

London, March 23 .- Questioned in the house of commons last evening regarding the free passages to the dominions issued by the Overseas

Settlement Committee, Col. L. S.

Amery, colonial under-secretary, reiterated that no free passages were granted without the approval of the representatives of the dominions. The government was aware, the under-secretary admitted, that unemploy-ment existed on a considerable scale in the dominions, and as a result of

In the dominions, and as a result of the attitude of the dominions repre-sentatives, large classes of industrial workers had been refused passages. Some industrial workers had gone to the dominions at their own ex-pense, and found themselves in diffi-culties, but the machinery set up by the government had done its part in discouraging the workers from going
