

HANA

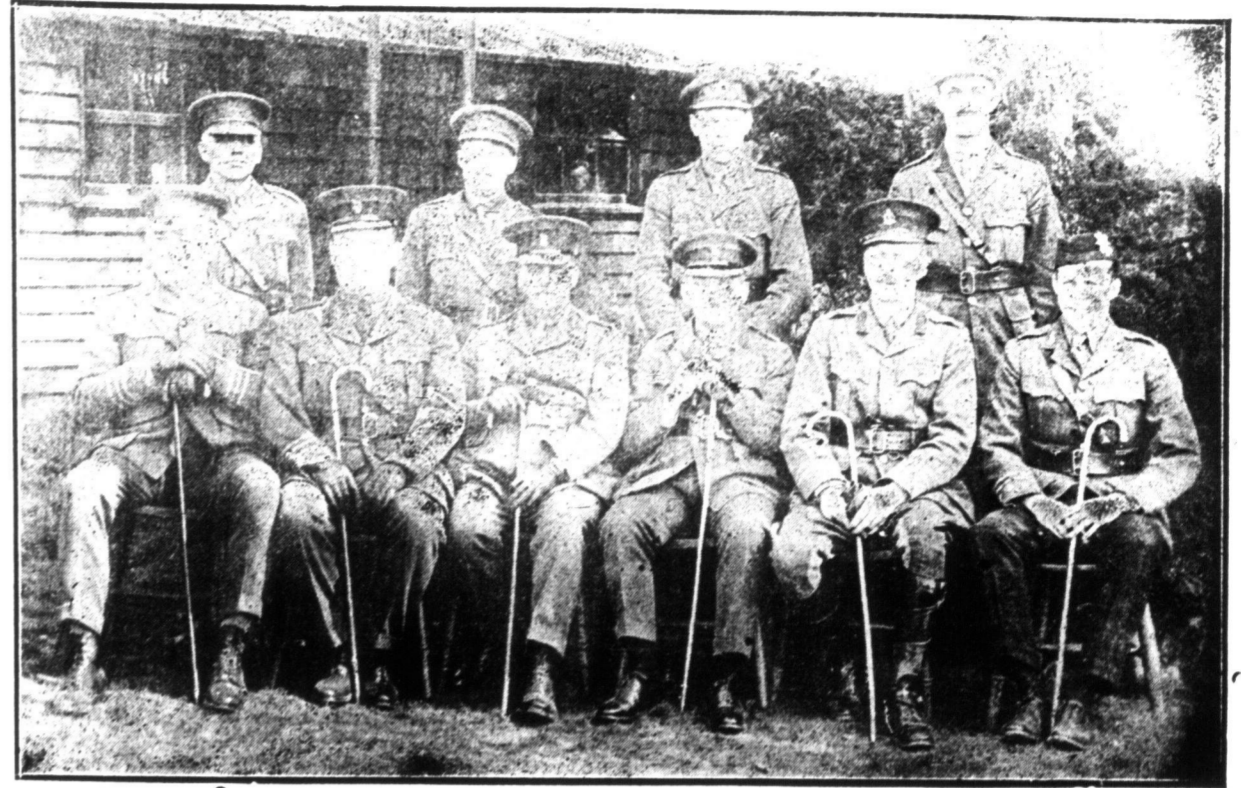

CANADIAN SOLDIERS FIGHTING THE BATTLES OF THE EMPIRE IN FRANCE

No. 4 Class H. Q. Gymnasium, Aldershot. From Sergt. E. Arkell.

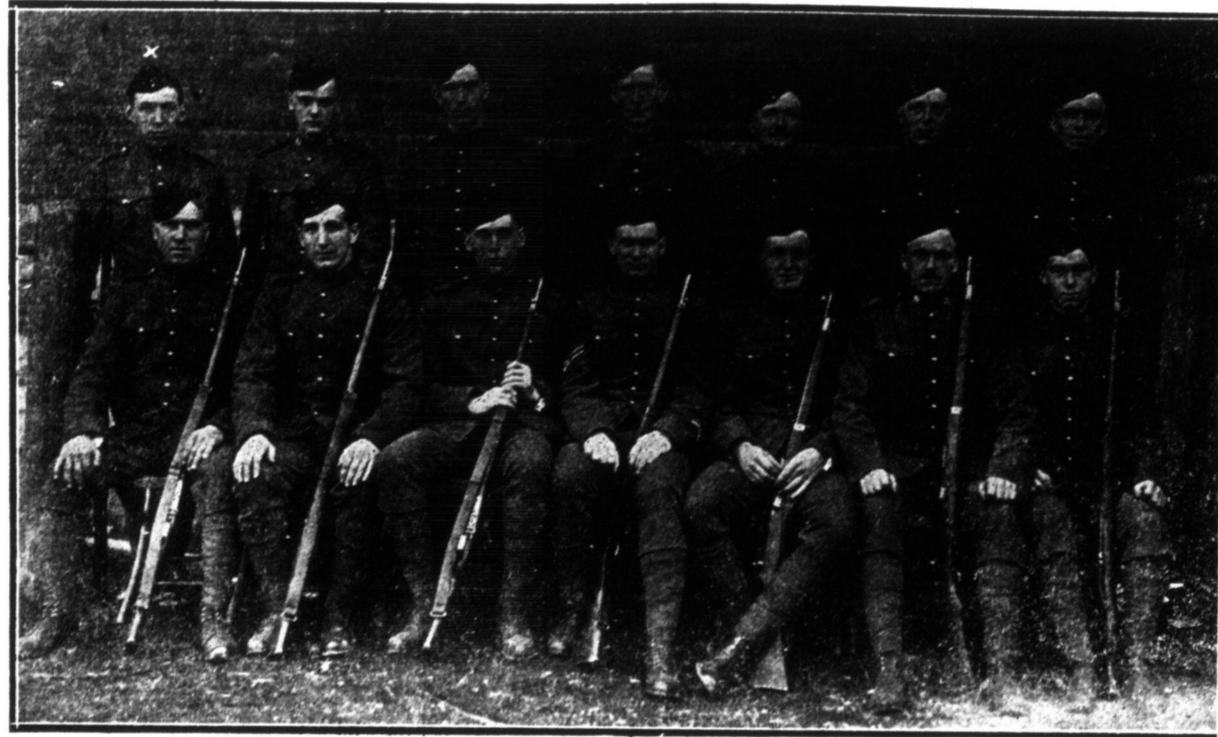

Cnr. J. W. King, 48th Battery, in France.

Headquarters staff of the Canadians at Crowborough Camp, England. Photo from Major Eric Armour.

Sergt.-Major Bateman and chum overseas with the 242nd Pioneer Battalion.

Toronto and Hamilton boys in the 19th Batt. Sent by Sergt. Roy Burnett.

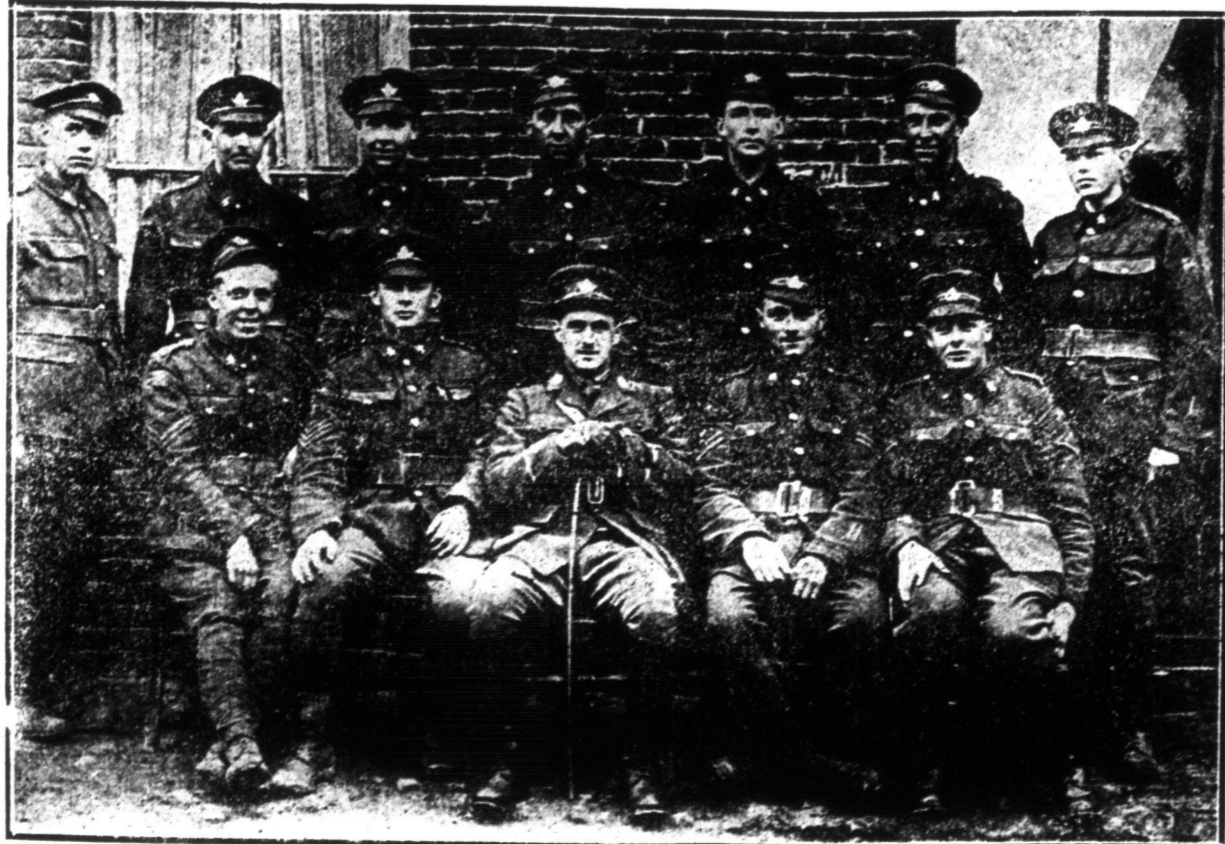

Sappers V. Liddell and A. C. Gray, with the Canadian Engineers in England.

"Shell-slingers" of the 48th Battery training overseas.

Sgt. Sergt.-Major Keith, D.C.M., and Sergt.-Major Goodfellow, D.C.M., of the original 15th Battalion.

84th Battalion members pose before a farm-house. We are indebted to Pte. Ernest Treasure for the photograph.

Pte. C. Brown and Pte. Alf. Reading, both of the 169th Battalion in France.