Harbor Master Ferris, who has been ill for some time, was reported today as not being so well.

Clearing house returns for the week ending March 12th, $1,116,126; corresponding week last year $1,083,280.

The funeral of James T. Buchanan, late station master at Grand Bay, which was to have been held today, is postponed till further notice.

The Dominion five and drum band will meet for practice tonight at Orange corner, north end, at 8 o'clock sharp; all members are requested to be present.

A small purse was found on Canterbury street this morning containing some street-car tickets and small change. The owner can have same by applying to city editor Times.

By an oversight the name of Mrs. Phillips of Boston, was omitted as among the surviving relatives of John Sullivan, of Frederick street, who died Tuesday. Mrs. Phillips is a daughter.

There is every probability of a three-cornered fight for alderman representation in Kings ward. Ald. J. B. Ham, Timothy O'Brien and Charles D. Jones are the candidates mentioned today.

Royal mail C. P. R. steamer Empress of Britain, Captain Murry, due here tomorrow from Liverpool via Halifax. A large number of board 118 enolon, 477 second cabin and 667 steerage passengers.

Allan line steamship Virginian, Captain Vipond, will sail tomorrow morning for Liverpool via Halifax. A large number of passengers are booked to join the vessel at Halifax.

The newspaper men will play a curling match tomorrow afternoon in the St. Andrew's Rink, with the customs house men. Two rinks a side will compete. The game to start at 3:30 o'clock and ten ends to be played.

The B. K. Y. C. will hold a smoking concert in their rooms, Germain street, tomorrow evening. A good programme has been prepared and a good time is looked for as this will be the first smoker in the year.

At a meeting of the Star Line Company, held last Friday, a resolution was passed that unless the mail carrier delivered a regular amount the company would run only one boat on the Fredericton route during the coming season.

Geo. Carvell, city ticket agent for I. C. R., today received word from Picton that the Stanley, which was stuck in the ice, was reported as moving in the direction of Georgetown, but that the engine, which left Georgetown at 7 a. m. yesterday, was in the ice five miles east of Picton Island.

The opposition ward workers of Prince and Wellington wards will dine at White's restaurant this evening. Ald. W. A. Christie, M. D., will preside, and there will be an interesting toast list with speeches by the recently elected candidates and others. There will be over one hundred in attendance.

Considerable excitement prevailed at Ballast wharf yesterday afternoon when Maggie Williams, a well known character suddenly ran toward the edge of the wharf, saying she would make way with herself. Some men who were standing near prevented her carrying out her threat. She was sent home in a cab.

George Foley and Walter McLeod, charged with fighting together in the east side ferry house, were before Judge Ritchie yesterday afternoon, when they were adjudged guilty and fined $20 each, or two months in jail, but the fines were allowed to stand against their future good conduct.

A very pleasant time was spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carlson, 129 Union Street, west end, the occasion being Mr. Carlson's birthday. He was the recipient of many useful gifts, among them a watch and chain from his wife. Refreshments were served to the guests after which music and games were enjoyed.

St. John will not be represented at the mass meeting to be held in Halifax today, under a resolution regarding the proposed fast Atlantic S. S. service will be considered. W. E. Foster, president of the local board of trade, found it impossible to get away, and Mayor Sears decided not to go over.

Manager Donald of the Marathons announces that in the event of the Amherst Ramblers losing again to Fredericton tomorrow night, they may play the Greeks here Saturday night. Negotiations are now being carried on. An endeavor is being made today to secure a St. John man to act with Smith on Friday night as it has been decided to use the double referee system.

With reference to the loss of a small grip by C. P. R. baggage master J. B. Murphy, from one of the I. C. R. waiting rooms, as told of in the morning papers, it seems to be fully well taken for granted that the missing piece is probably by this time in the possession of its rightful owner. As there were five others in Mr. Murphy's party, it is believed that the grip was taken as a prank by his friends.

Some evil disposed person or persons threw a large stone into a small boat at Reed's Point, owned by Pilots Murray, Miller and Spears, which almost made a complete wreck of her. This occurred recently and is not the first time that similar acts of destruction to private property have taken place in this slip. A liberal reward will be given for the conviction of the guilty party.

A sub-committee of the board of water and sewerage will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock to discuss the question of keeping Engineers Hunter of the water-works extension in the city employ for some time longer. Some of the aldermen think that Mr. Hunter's services might be dispensed with now. The committee is composed of Ald. Christie, Baxter, McGoldrick and Frink.

SUPT. WINCHESTER AFTER TEAMSTES

He is Determined to Stop the Practice of Driving Over the Sidewalks.

The persistent practice of teamsters in deliberately driving over and standing their teams on the side walks has for some time been the cause of a great deal of annoyance to the public causing much unnecessary delay and considerable inconvenience, so much so, indeed, that the matter has been repeatedly brought to the attention of Superintendent Albert Winchester who has signified his intention of keeping a sharp lookout for offenders and bringing them before the court.

LETTER FROM CAPT. ROBERTS

To the Editor of the Times, City: Dear Sir,—In the sporting column of this morning's Telegraph there appeared a communication, signed by Geo. R. Crosby on behalf of the Portland Y. M. C. A. basketball team, challenging the Algonquin team to a game to be played this evening. The Algonquins have in their possession an agreement signed by Geo. R. Crosby, captain of the P. Y. M. C. A. team, in which he has pledged his team to play the Algonquins tonight at their rooms, with Geo. Emery as referee. If the Portland Y. M. C. A. team is at all anxious to play, their agreement entitles them to a game and they will be accommodated without further negotiation of any kind, which negotiation is obviously ridiculous and uncalled for. I would like to add, however, that the Algonquins would not care to recognize any communication signed by Mr. Crosby. Respectfully yours, ALGONQUIN B. B. TEAM, Per A. A. Roberts, Captain.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court this morning John Vaughan, alias John Brown, aged 16 years, arrested yesterday on suspicion of stealing from a scow in York Point slip a quantity of coal, the property of the Dominion Coal Co., was remanded for further hearing.

Nicholas O'Brien, arrested for drunkenness, was remanded. When searched O'Brien was found to have $16.44 in his possession.

Complaint has been laid against Mrs. Travis for selling cigarettes to Vaughan (or Brown), who is a minor.

CIRCUIT COURT

The circuit court session was resumed at eleven o'clock this morning, Judge Landry presiding.

The case of Mary Elizabeth Harris vs. James A. Jamieson, was laid aside till May 12 next. This case was first tried in 1901, and was finally taken on appeal to the supreme court of Canada, and a new trial ordered. The case arises out of the death of the plaintiff's husband, who was killed by falling from the I. C. R. elevator. The plaintiff alleged that the structure was defective, thereby causing the death of Mr. Harris.

In the case of Gluckstein vs. Patterson, judgment will be given this afternoon. Court adjourned till April 24th, when petit jurors will assemble.

THE YARMOUTH IN PORT

Steamer Yarmouth, Captain McKinnon, arrived in port this morning from New York. After the accident the steamer left New York to be repaired on the dry dock in Erie Basin. She has received a thorough overhauling, new plates were put on the hull and her interior has been renovated from stem to stern. The steamer will be placed on the Digby route tomorrow morning. The steamer Boston, which has been on the route, will return at once to Yarmouth, N. S.

EVERY DAY CLUB

At the Every Day Club this evening there will be no end of fun in the debate upon the relative value to humanity of the cow and the horse. The members who are forming a minstrel circle, had an organization meeting at the club last evening. The file and drum band to be re-organized in connection with the club will be in working shape soon. There will be a dine concert at the club tomorrow evening. The club has increased and strengthened its membership very considerably in the last few weeks. The club orchestra meets for practice this evening at 270 Germain street.
