

meeting be employed; let the well-adjusted machinery presented in the "suggestions"* on the cover of this report be brought into active and continuous operation, and a result will, under the Divine benediction be secured, honourable to the community, and promotive of the designs of Him who came to seek and to save that which was lost."

* A copy of these suggestions is inserted on the cover of this Report.

of his own
it, by com-
ever found,
y creature,"

thus com-
the mighty
ans, and for
saints have,
d, is to be
bow at his men, restore
all spiritual
ed, helpless,
ore, are the
wn to His
t of them.
cting them,
icine unap-
left to tri-ve without sibilities so
h all possi-
hes. They strongly to MISSIONARY
se, and the
rably high eciates its tokens of
he greatest elopement rrenness of
d how far,
e fulfilment
realized, in
o herewith
eaven, and
eceive it.—

obligations
in Ireland
the Divine
flesh," and
d the loud
messengers
to all the
the labours
e up to the
. Let the missionary