

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY—FREDERICTON.

Friday, March 6, 1853.

On the Motion of the Speaker, the debate on the subject of the Quit Rents was resumed.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

Mr. M. J. Wilmet said that the committee had had time to go into the subject, and he would now report to the House.

BRITISH NEWS.

There are two opposite rumours in circulation, says the Morning Chronicle, as to the approaching Speech from the Throne.

The London Courier continues to discuss the subject of the election of Speaker to the House of Commons.

The late general election has returned one hundred and thirty seven military and naval officers to Parliament.

The report of the Queen's pregnancy continues to be read in all the newspapers, and gains ground.

The London Mercantile Journal of Feb. 10, remarks: Extensive orders have been received this week from the United States of America, and from the South American Republics, for British manufactures.

Two Turkish officers of high rank have arrived in London, and were presented to the Duke of Wellington.

It is said that the Duke of Wellington is endeavouring to effect a reconciliation of the two parties in Spain.

The English Ambassador at the Court of France, is 50,000 dollars per annum, with an outfit of 20,000 dollars.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

Mr. Clanchy was for meeting the hon. and learned member for Westchester at once, on the ground of comutation; and he could not, on any principle of justice, legality, or even expediency, consent to such a measure.

UNITED STATES.

The Washington Globe states that the whole amount of specie imported into the United States since October, 1852, is $24,428,534.

New York.—The estate has never sold so high in New York as during this winter, an immense amount has changed hands.

The President of the United States completed his 6th year on Sunday the 14th instant.

Another French Visitor.—The French corvette Coeur de Lion, Capt. de Saint, arrived yesterday from Hong Kong, having left that port on the 21st of January, only four days after the D'Assas.

Cholera at Martinique.—Capt. Smith, of the sloop Northampton, 13 days from St. Barts, arrived at New York on Monday, Feb. 10, with cholera on board.

Mr. Cameron.—Mr. Cameron has been again called to the "Appropriation Bill" by reading in last Saturday's Courier a letter signed "Orion," in which two things are attempted to be explained.

1. The Constitution of this Province, wherein it is asserted that the House of Assembly possess not the exclusive right of appropriation, like the Representative bodies in all other parts of the realm.

2. That the loss of the Appropriation Bill was wholly the fault of the Assembly, in which they were guilty by the obtinate determination to secure their own pay, or risk the chance of all public services being suspended.

3. In offering some further remarks on these two separate principles, I pretend to be governed by the reason, the equity, and the propriety of the subject; wherein the position of facts are not in accordance.

4. The government is said to have been proposed by the Duke of Wellington to General Alava, as likely to conciliate Europe, and settle the Spanish question.

5. A Council of Regency to be appointed, in order to govern the country until the young Prince be of age, (his majority being fixed at 28), and to be composed of five members, among whom Zamalacaregy and the Marquis de las Amarillas are necessarily to be included.

6. An unconditional amnesty for all political offences.

7. Securities to be given the people of the Basque provinces and Navarre, for the maintenance of their laws.

8. All loans or debts contracted in the name of the Anti-Salubre dynasty, or in that of Don Carlos, to be acknowledged and considered as the Royal debt of Spain.

9. All ranks, titles, and decorations, conferred by the present Queen, or Don Carlos, to be declared the property of those to whom they have been granted.

THE EUPHRATES EXPEDITION. From the Liverpool Courier, Feb. 11.

This expedition, which, owing to adverse winds, has been so long detained, is now fairly under weigh, the barque George Canning having sailed yesterday.

The following are a few of the details of the steamers: Euphrates—105 feet long; 19 beam; 2 engines; 25 horse power; weight of iron, exclusive of machinery, 29 tons 1 cwt. 3 qrs. 7 lbs; draught of water under 2 feet; weight of engine 11 tons.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Mr. Cameron.—Mr. Cameron has been again called to the "Appropriation Bill" by reading in last Saturday's Courier a letter signed "Orion," in which two things are attempted to be explained.

1. The Constitution of this Province, wherein it is asserted that the House of Assembly possess not the exclusive right of appropriation, like the Representative bodies in all other parts of the realm.

2. That the loss of the Appropriation Bill was wholly the fault of the Assembly, in which they were guilty by the obtinate determination to secure their own pay, or risk the chance of all public services being suspended.

3. In offering some further remarks on these two separate principles, I pretend to be governed by the reason, the equity, and the propriety of the subject; wherein the position of facts are not in accordance.

4. The government is said to have been proposed by the Duke of Wellington to General Alava, as likely to conciliate Europe, and settle the Spanish question.

5. A Council of Regency to be appointed, in order to govern the country until the young Prince be of age, (his majority being fixed at 28), and to be composed of five members, among whom Zamalacaregy and the Marquis de las Amarillas are necessarily to be included.

6. An unconditional amnesty for all political offences.

7. Securities to be given the people of the Basque provinces and Navarre, for the maintenance of their laws.

8. All loans or debts contracted in the name of the Anti-Salubre dynasty, or in that of Don Carlos, to be acknowledged and considered as the Royal debt of Spain.

9. All ranks, titles, and decorations, conferred by the present Queen, or Don Carlos, to be declared the property of those to whom they have been granted.

Mr. Cameron.—Mr. Cameron has been again called to the "Appropriation Bill" by reading in last Saturday's Courier a letter signed "Orion," in which two things are attempted to be explained.

1. The Constitution of this Province, wherein it is asserted that the House of Assembly possess not the exclusive right of appropriation, like the Representative bodies in all other parts of the realm.

2. That the loss of the Appropriation Bill was wholly the fault of the Assembly, in which they were guilty by the obtinate determination to secure their own pay, or risk the chance of all public services being suspended.

3. In offering some further remarks on these two separate principles, I pretend to be governed by the reason, the equity, and the propriety of the subject; wherein the position of facts are not in accordance.

4. The government is said to have been proposed by the Duke of Wellington to General Alava, as likely to conciliate Europe, and settle the Spanish question.

5. A Council of Regency to be appointed, in order to govern the country until the young Prince be of age, (his majority being fixed at 28), and to be composed of five members, among whom Zamalacaregy and the Marquis de las Amarillas are necessarily to be included.

6. An unconditional amnesty for all political offences.

7. Securities to be given the people of the Basque provinces and Navarre, for the maintenance of their laws.

THE EDITOR'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Cameron.—Mr. Cameron has been again called to the "Appropriation Bill" by reading in last Saturday's Courier a letter signed "Orion," in which two things are attempted to be explained.

1. The Constitution of this Province, wherein it is asserted that the House of Assembly possess not the exclusive right of appropriation, like the Representative bodies in all other parts of the realm.

2. That the loss of the Appropriation Bill was wholly the fault of the Assembly, in which they were guilty by the obtinate determination to secure their own pay, or risk the chance of all public services being suspended.

3. In offering some further remarks on these two separate principles, I pretend to be governed by the reason, the equity, and the propriety of the subject; wherein the position of facts are not in accordance.

4. The government is said to have been proposed by the Duke of Wellington to General Alava, as likely to conciliate Europe, and settle the Spanish question.

5. A Council of Regency to be appointed, in order to govern the country until the young Prince be of age, (his majority being fixed at 28), and to be composed of five members, among whom Zamalacaregy and the Marquis de las Amarillas are necessarily to be included.

6. An unconditional amnesty for all political offences.

7. Securities to be given the people of the Basque provinces and Navarre, for the maintenance of their laws.

8. All loans or debts contracted in the name of the Anti-Salubre dynasty, or in that of Don Carlos, to be acknowledged and considered as the Royal debt of Spain.

9. All ranks, titles, and decorations, conferred by the present Queen, or Don Carlos, to be declared the property of those to whom they have been granted.

Mr. Cameron.—Mr. Cameron has been again called to the "Appropriation Bill" by reading in last Saturday's Courier a letter signed "Orion," in which two things are attempted to be explained.

1. The Constitution of this Province, wherein it is asserted that the House of Assembly possess not the exclusive right of appropriation, like the Representative bodies in all other parts of the realm.

2. That the loss of the Appropriation Bill was wholly the fault of the Assembly, in which they were guilty by the obtinate determination to secure their own pay, or risk the chance of all public services being suspended.

3. In offering some further remarks on these two separate principles, I pretend to be governed by the reason, the equity, and the propriety of the subject; wherein the position of facts are not in accordance.

4. The government is said to have been proposed by the Duke of Wellington to General Alava, as likely to conciliate Europe, and settle the Spanish question.

5. A Council of Regency to be appointed, in order to govern the country until the young Prince be of age, (his majority being fixed at 28), and to be composed of five members, among whom Zamalacaregy and the Marquis de las Amarillas are necessarily to be included.

6. An unconditional amnesty for all political offences.

7. Securities to be given the people of the Basque provinces and Navarre, for the maintenance of their laws.

THE EDITOR'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Cameron.—Mr. Cameron has been again called to the "Appropriation Bill" by reading in last Saturday's Courier a letter signed "Orion," in which two things are attempted to be explained.

1. The Constitution of this Province, wherein it is asserted that the House of Assembly possess not the exclusive right of appropriation, like the Representative bodies in all other parts of the realm.

2. That the loss of the Appropriation Bill was wholly the fault of the Assembly, in which they were guilty by the obtinate determination to secure their own pay, or risk the chance of all public services being suspended.

3. In offering some further remarks on these two separate principles, I pretend to be governed by the reason, the equity, and the propriety of the subject; wherein the position of facts are not in accordance.

4. The government is said to have been proposed by the Duke of Wellington to General Alava, as likely to conciliate Europe, and settle the Spanish question.

5. A Council of Regency to be appointed, in order to govern the country until the young Prince be of age, (his majority being fixed at 28), and to be composed of five members, among whom Zamalacaregy and the Marquis de las Amarillas are necessarily to be included.

6. An unconditional amnesty for all political offences.

7. Securities to be given the people of the Basque provinces and Navarre, for the maintenance of their laws.

8. All loans or debts contracted in the name of the Anti-Salubre dynasty, or in that of Don Carlos, to be acknowledged and considered as the Royal debt of Spain.

9. All ranks, titles, and decorations, conferred by the present Queen, or Don Carlos, to be declared the property of those to whom they have been granted.

Mr. Cameron.—Mr. Cameron has been again called to the "Appropriation Bill" by reading in last Saturday's Courier a letter signed "Orion," in which two things are attempted to be explained.

1. The Constitution of this Province, wherein it is asserted that the House of Assembly possess not the exclusive right of appropriation, like the Representative bodies in all other parts of the realm.

2. That the loss of the Appropriation Bill was wholly the fault of the Assembly, in which they were guilty by the obtinate determination to secure their own pay, or risk the chance of all public services being suspended.

3. In offering some further remarks on these two separate principles, I pretend to be governed by the reason, the equity, and the propriety of the subject; wherein the position of facts are not in accordance.

4. The government is said to have been proposed by the Duke of Wellington to General Alava, as likely to conciliate Europe, and settle the Spanish question.

5. A Council of Regency to be appointed, in order to govern the country until the young Prince be of age, (his majority being fixed at 28), and to be composed of five members, among whom Zamalacaregy and the Marquis de las Amarillas are necessarily to be included.

6. An unconditional amnesty for all political offences.

7. Securities to be given the people of the Basque provinces and Navarre, for the maintenance of their laws.