

GREAT SUM OF $470,000,000 TO RUN NEW YORK

Increase of Twenty-Two Million With Ten More Like-ly to be Added

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—A tentative budget for 1927, amounting to $470,000,000, more than $220,000,000 above the original budget for 1926, has been accepted by the Board of Estimate. This is the minimum figure and will be increased many millions, it is understood, within the next few days. After October 21, when the budget is proposed, it is adopted, there can be no further increases, although the budget may be revised "downward."

It is understood the final budget figure, to be adopted October 31, is likely to be at least $470,000,000.

INCREASES ITEMIZED

In accepting the tentative figures of Charles L. Kohler, director of the budget, the Board of Estimate issued a statement in which it itemized the increases over last year's figures thus far. The statement also pointed out that the original budget of 1926 had been found insufficient by $4,000,000 to date, and that at least another supplementary million would be needed by the first of the year. The increase, therefore, the statement pointed out, actually is but $1,000,000 more than actual expenditures for 1926.

The largest increase in the tentative budget is $10,000,000 for debt service and tax delinquency, "due largely to the construction of new highways and other improvements of a permanent character, and the unusually large expenditures for snow removal and for unpaid taxes."

$2,547,000 MORE FOR POLICE

The next largest increase is $2,547,000 for the police department. This embodies a full year's provision for the 1,485 patrolmen and officers added to the force in 1926 and provides salary increments based on length of service in the department and for increased motor and telephone service.

GUELPH CELEBRATES GUTHRIE SELECTION

Mayor Welcomes New Head of Conservative Party in Commons

Canadian Press Despatch.

GUELPH, Ont., Oct. 14.—Hon. Hugh Guthrie was given the warmest welcome of his career here this morning on his arrival home from Ottawa after his election to the leadership of the Conservative party. A great crowd collected at the C. N. station.

A procession was formed and headed by the Guelph City Band paraded through the principal streets to the City Hall where an immense crowd had gathered. Standing on the steps of the City Hall Mr. Guthrie was formally welcomed by Mayor Robson who in a few words paid his tribute of praise to the citizen of Guelph who had received such signal honor at the hands of his political party.

Mr. Guthrie was unable to speak for some time so tumultuous was the cheering and he was visibly affected. He expressed his appreciation of the thoughtfulness of his fellow citizens and the wonderful welcome they had accorded him. He felt that the country had suffered a great loss in the retirement of his predecessor Mr. Meighen and paid him a high tribute as one of the outstanding men of Canada. For himself he promised the very best that was in him to assist in promoting the best interests of Canada and in the strengthening of ties with the motherland.

MEDICAL MEN OPPOSE DEATH FOR SUFFERERS

British Surgeons Not Willing to Take Responsibility on Shoulders

LONDON, Oct. 14.—British medical men, again thrusting out the problem whether they ought to kill hopeless sufferers from painful diseases, show that while many believe such killing justified, few would be willing to take the responsibility of issuing or executing a death warrant on a patient.

Sir W. Arbuthnot Lane, distinguished surgeon and president of the New Health Society, started the discussion when he said in a statement:

TWO ADVOCATES

"People stricken with agonizing illnesses, certain to prove fatal, certainly should have the right to be put painlessly to death by their medical advisers. I strongly advocate legal euthanasia—death administered by a patient's own request—after all circumstances have been carefully considered."

One famous surgeon came to his support. Surgeon Rear Admiral Charles M. Beadnell, commenting on the statement, said:

"Why is man alone condemned to die painfully? There are few medical men who have not been arraigned by conscience for having artificially prolonged an existence at once useless, hopeless, distressing, and painful to all concerned. In such cases should not the dictates of conscience be above the law?"

FOUR OBJECTIONS

But he and Sir W. Arbuthnot Lane so far are alone in their advocacy. Opponents of the idea, also distinguished, have their opposition on four main points:

1. The possibility of abuse.
2. The possibility of unexpected recovery.
3. The fact that drugs can keep pain at bay.
4. The reluctance of doctors to prescribe death.

"Even if we could admit the right of a patient to die at his own request," asked Sir Bruce Bruce-Porter, "who would decide whether his case was hopeless? The most terrible cases of cancer have recovered when the sufferer seemed dying."

"But," he added, "no doctor or committee of doctors would ever dare assume the responsibility. The unanimous opinion of six skilled specialists might be negated within a brief period by some new curative dis-

"Who would not wish a swift and painless death to a hopeless sufferer from cancer, or advocate the lethal chamber for incurables?" asked Sir William R. Smith, professor emeritus of forensic medicine at King's College.
