

News Notes About Prominent Baptists

(Maritime Baptist.) The Ludlow street church, St. John West, has just finished a very successful Rally Week. It is worthy of note that the pastor, Rev. W. R. Robinson, has entered upon the eleventh year of service with this church. The last year was one of the best, not only of the pastorate but in the history of the church.

Louis J. Hanson has left for Shediac, where he expects to take up the work of preaching the Gospel. Mr. Hanson is a native of Prince Edward Island, but has lived recently in Fredericton, N. S. He removed to this city about a year ago, and since that time he and his wife and child have been regular attendants of the Ludlow Street United Baptist church. Mr. Hanson has had considerable experience as a preacher and evangelist, having been connected for some years with the Salvation Army in Lowell, Mass., and other places, and later with the Temple Baptist church in Yarmouth, N. S.

The Union Square Baptist church, of Somerville, Mass., has provided its pastor, Rev. W. Harry Freda, with an assistant in the person of Miss Emma Reichert. For eleven years Miss Reichert was with Dr. Campbell at the First church, Cambridge.

Rev. M. L. Orchard, with the permission of the Foreign Mission Board, is supplying the pulpit of the First church of Brandon, Man., during the winter. The church at St. George, N. B., has been making progress under the energetic leadership of the pastor, Rev. H. E. DeWolfe.

Rev. I. B. Colwell is enjoying his second pastorate with the Hopewell church. The church celebrated its centennial on December 1, having been organized in October, 1818. This was the first Baptist church in Hopewell. The second was organized in Hillsboro in 1822.

Prof. Allen Hoben, Ph. D., who went overseas last spring with the American Y. M. C. A., was wounded on October 6. Recently a cable was received by his mother saying that he had been discharged from hospital and would soon leave for home. His mother resides with a daughter, Mrs. W. R. Robinson, in this city. Dr. Hoben is professor of homiletics in the University of Chicago.

Rev. A. J. Prosser, pastor of the Cornwallis and Canning churches, has been observing a "Christian Enlistment" week. The purpose is to enlist every member of the church in definite Christian service, and in as many forms of service as is possible.

Rev. H. G. Estabrooks is remembered gratefully by many in these provinces who were helped by his ministry in the various pastorates held here. These were interested to learn that he is at present engaged in military Y. M. C. A. work at Victoria, B. C.

Rev. E. H. Wentworth, pastor of the Waterloo street church, St. John, has announced his decision to accept the call extended to him by the Baptist church at Quebec City. This decision, while not entirely unexpected, is the cause of deep regret to the church which he has so long served, and to all who have been associated with him in Christian work in the city. By his work as Baptist chaplain at the General Public Hospital, he rendered a much-appreciated service which extended far beyond the city. He has also taken an active part in all the work of the denomination. As a member of the Home Mission Board his counsel was prized by his brethren. After the death of Dr. McLeod for some months the burden of editorial work in connection with this paper rested largely upon Mr. Wentworth, and was carried to the satisfaction of all. Mr. Wentworth's removal to Quebec is a distinct loss to the work in these provinces.

His Lordship Bishop Richardson administered the rite of confirmation to a number of candidates in St. Paul's church last evening. His Lordship spoke impressively on the duty of doing all ordinary things as well as possible.

Ivory Soap contains no adulterants. The materials from which it is made are as pure and as high-grade as can be. They are efficient in themselves; uncombined alkali and other harsh materials could not make them more so. Ivory Soap can be safely used to wash anything that pure, clear water alone will not harm.
