PILOT BOAT TROOP HAD ROUGH TIME

Disasted in Bay of Fundy Last Night, But Makes Westport—All Well Aboard

A Digby special to The Times says:—The St. John pilot boat Howard D. Troop was disasted in the Bay of Fundy last night. She was sighted from the Brier Island signal station early this morning and the life saving crew went to her assistance. She arrived in Westport, however, at ten o'clock this morning under her own power, the pilot boat being an auxiliary schooner. All on board are reported uninjured, though having gone through a rough experience.

BOY FOUND.

Richard Dorman, a five year old boy was found wandering about on Long Wharf yesterday afternoon by the police. He was later called for by his father who resides in City Road.

TO BISLEY.

Bowman Maggs arrived in St. John this week from Vancouver and will sail for England in about a week with the Canadian Bisley team, which he is a member. Mr. Maggs' last year record as a shot was particularly good and his New Brunswick friends' best wishes will accompany him across the water.

RECORD BEEF PRICE.

The price of beef in St. John at present has advanced to such an extent that it is now at a record, thirteen cents being asked in the wholesale market for western beef and from twelve to twelve and a half for local. The market has been decidedly firm for quite a while and there is reported little prospect of the price being lower for some time. Veal and pork are also very high.

COUNCIL LIKELY ON MONDAY.

No meeting of the common council will be held this week, owing to the visit of the British business men. Yesterday was the regular time for the meeting, but the commissioners were all busy entertaining the visitors, and today Mayor Brink and Commissioner Schofield accompanied them up river. It is probable that a special meeting of the council will be held Monday afternoon to clear up matters awaiting attention.

POLICE REPORTS.

George Chisholm has been reported by the police for obstructing the sidewalk in Carmarthen street yesterday by allowing a horse to stand on it for ten minutes. Joseph Comiskey and Michael May have been reported for selling books in the city without a license. Phyllis Tilley, James Mullaly, Julian Legere and Frederick Gerard have been reported for working in the city without a license. Edward Walsh has been reported for scattering hay and straw about in Chatham street yesterday.

CAMP SUSSEX POST OFFICE.

No word has been received from Postmaster Sears concerning the establishment of a field post office at Camp Sussex this year, as has been the case for the last two years. He was formerly advised several weeks ahead of time. It is thought, because she having had no advice in the matter thus far, that the men to take charge of the mail distribution at the camp this year will be from the Halifax post-office. The reason for this is probably that the militia headquarters have been changed, and owing to the appointment of the men might be made in the sister city.

AND THERE'S NO ADMISSION FEE.

The period of agonizing sacrifice for the actors of the Gay-Musician Co. will begin at half-past six this evening on the theatre grounds, but it is difficult to tell when it will end. The news writers on the local papers have a winning combination, at least they think so, but these "blinders" are often overestimated, and so that the opening of the conflict will be awaited with interest, while the closing will be awaited with anything that happens to be within reach. Thirty boys are being advertised for by Manager Short of the Theatre to carry lemons and root for the actors, just for the sake of encouragement if nothing else. A motion picture machine will take the scenes, and news will be later delivered showing some of the more famous of the players in action. Music will probably be furnished by Cooke orchestra, and an emergency hospital is being erected just outside the gates.

AUTOMOBILE DAY IN POLICE COURT

Several Cases Taken up and a Warning is Given

Today "automobile day" in the police court, and no less than five automobile owners were called upon to answer violations of the law. John H. Marr, reported for not having his auto properly registered, produced his license and the case was allowed to stand. He explained that he had applied for his license when reported, but that it had been shipped to Woodstock in mistake.

William Riley, reported for driving his car in the city without a license, explained to the court that he expected his license down from Fredericton any day now. He was allowed to go on condition that he produce his license on Monday morning.

William Foster, reported for driving his car at a fast rate around the corner of Main street and Douglas avenue on June 8, and also for not sounding his horn, was fined $5. The fine was allowed to stand.

A case against J. A. Papeley & Co., reported for not having a license for their big motor truck, and also for driving a car through the streets without a rear lamp, was allowed to stand for two weeks, as Mr. Papeley is out of the city.

A. C. Smalley, reported for not sounding his auto horn while driving his car around the corner of Union street and Chatham streets on May 21, told the court that he was not in the car at the time, but that it was a chauffeur who was driving. The matter was dropped.

His Honor, in commenting on the cases, said that in future the automobile owners would have to comply fully with the law or else would have to pay a fine from $50 to $100. The fine was allowed to stand.

PERJURY CHARGE FOLLOWS ON RECENT LIQUOR LAW CASE

The police last night arrested Frank McDermott, a middle-aged man, on the charge of perjury. The charge, it is understood, has been made by Louis Fader, the proprietor of a restaurant in Pond street. Several months ago Fader was fined $100 or three months in jail for selling liquor to a "licensee." The conviction was made on the strength of evidence given by McDermott, who swore that he had purchased a bottle of gin from Fader. Fader denied the charge, but was fined.

The case will come up for hearing tomorrow morning. Fader, it is said, will call as a witness an Indian named Jacob, who was in the store at the time McDermott alleged that he purchased the gin. McDermott was before the court this morning and was remanded.

WEDDINGS

Doherty-Breen.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Leo's church, Goshen, Kings county, on June 2, by Rev. Francis P. Lockary, when Ella, daughter of the late Edward and Mrs. Bridget Breen, became the wife of Francis Doherty of Galway, Albert county. The bride was becomingly gowned in white and wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms, and carried a white prayer book. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Sadie Genevieve Breen, of St. John, who wore a pretty dress of brown silk and large black picture hat with ostrich plumes. Dennis Dorman was best man. The popularity of bride and groom was testified by the large gathering at the church. After a bountiful repast at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Doherty left for their future home in Albert county.

WHEN IS A MAN DRUNK?

Some Answers to the Old Question in St. John Police Court

From time to time people called to give evidence in police court cases, have been asked by the court "in your opinion, when is a man drunk," and there have been some odd answers given, but some given in the court yesterday during the hearing of a liquor case, surpass any others recorded. In reply to the question one witness answered, "I think a man is drunk when he is not able to take care of himself, I mean to keep from falling on the ground, and does not know what he is saying or doing, also making a fool of himself and making a disturbance."

Another answered, "A man is drunk when he is full and cannot drink no more, and goes to bed in a snow bank."

A third answered, "I consider that when a man is making a fool of himself he is drunk, but when he is civil and quiet, he is not drunk."

Naturally these answers created some amusement in the court. The answers were given during the hearing of a case against Michael Moran, charged with allowing a drunken man in his saloon in British street for twenty minutes. The defendant pleaded not guilty and called several witnesses. The case was further adjourned until this afternoon to secure further evidence.

IMPROVING "SQUARE"

The plot of ground in Indiantown known as "Victoria Square" or Alexandra dump—either one will do—is now being improved, two men being engaged in changing its disagreeable appearance to something better. There is plenty of room for improvement and even the removal of the unsightly heap of empty cans, old mattresses, and ash barrels will be gladly welcomed by the citizens living nearby.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of Mrs. G. H. Rigby took place this afternoon from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Crowne, in Metcalfe street. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. B. H. Nobles, and interment was in Fernhill.
