DREDGES AND OTHER PLANT NOW ON WAY FROM PROVIDENCE

Two Diggers, Tugs and Scows Left There Yesterday For Courtenay Bay

The dredging plant which has been acquired by The Norton Griffiths Dredging Co. by their absorption of the Daly & Hannan Company, will be in St. John ready to start work in a few weeks. The plant, which includes two large dredges, with scows and tugs, left Providence, R. I., yesterday for St. John.

The trip up the coast is liable to be a tedious one, and there is no estimate as to the length of time that will be required. As soon as the dredges reach St. John they will be put to work at the mouth of Courtenay Bay. Later on the equipment will be enlarged by the addition of the new dredges which the company is having built in England.

HAVE YOU ONE? It really seems the fashion to have a cold these days. The change of the seasons has been responsible for quite a number of people being afflicted and a prominent druggist said this morning that it looked as though there was an epidemic raging. Many of his customers yesterday and Wednesday, almost all out of five, asked for a cure of cold, quick and certain.

SURPRISE AND PRESENTATION. Taking advantage of the fact that he is soon to figure as a principal in an interesting event, about twenty friends, called upon Thomas M. ### TWO WILLS PROBATED

Bequests by James R. Ferguson and James Hunter

In the probate court today, the will of James R. Ferguson, retired jeweller, was proved. He gives his house and lot at 180 Queen street to his daughter Helen L. Skinner; to his grandson George F. Skinner $1,000 and the rest of his estate to his wife Sarah H. Ferguson for life and after her death to his daughter. He then gives $100 each to his sister Margaret Sweet; to his niece Blanche McDonald, and to his niece Annie McDonald. The rest of his estate he gives to his wife for life and after her death to his children, Edna J., Catherine M., James R. and Douglas Y., and he nominates his wife, Jane Hunter, as his executrix. ### THE LAST TWO BASE-BALL GAMES OF THE SEASON

The Marshalls will line up against the fast Lynn team on the North End grounds this afternoon. The game will start at 3:15 and a good crowd is expected. Either Jordan or Winter will be sent in to do the pitching for the Greeks, and McDover will be back in the game at the receiving end. The Lynn boys will have their best team on the field, and will make the Greeks hustle to come out ahead in the score column. The fans, it is hoped, will turn out in good numbers to see these games, as the Marshalls management are going to considerable expense to bring the Lynn team here. Tomorrow's game will end the season.

MORE MACHINERY FOR COURTENAY BAY WORK

Hugh Dolney, of Montreal, who is here in connection with the work being performed by the Courtenay Construction Company at East St. John, said this morning that he was very well pleased with the progress which has been made since his last visit a couple of months ago. If the weather conditions favorable he expects still better results to be accomplished. As the scope of the operations extend they have more room for their equipment and they are now bringing in some more machinery to put on the big job.

NO MORE DOGS DEAD TODAY; DIFFERENCE OVER POISONING

Some Say Accident, But General Belief is Design, and There Will be Investigation

So far as could be learned this morning there were no new cases of dog-poisoning in the North End today. Ten in a day is an accident, at all events. Conflicting opinions are entertained in regard to the matter of the poisoning, some saying that the dogs were purposely put out of the way by the deliberate use of poison, while others, the North End police department in particular, are of opinion that the animals were about the public dump in Elm street and there ate something which spoiled their lives.

The police assert that most of the dogs which died yesterday afternoon were seen about the dump during the day, and that they probably picked up pieces of rat biscuit or other poison of a similar nature, which would account for their death. The owners of most of the dogs, however, hold different views, and are determined to sidle the matter to the bottom in an endeavor to learn if possible whether it was intended that their pets should be destroyed.

A physician said this morning after learning of the circumstances of the death of one of the dogs that it had swallowed strychnine. It is the intention to have an analysis of the stomach of one or two.

Some of the dogs lost were valued highly by their owners, being thoroughbreds and prize-winners. A three months' old collie pup owned by J. E. Quinn, Main street, was only recently brought here from Montreal, and had won the admiration of many at the recent Kennel Club show.

This dog had not been near the Elm street dump during the day and had been away from the house only about fifteen minutes before it was noticed to be very sick. It died in a few moments. Wm. Gillen lost two fine show spaniels which he prized highly, and Arthur Connors lost a good dog, S. Logan Victoria street, and John Hughes of Main street also had shown poisoned and there were others as well of which are still unidentified.

In all there were about ten.

The wholesale poisoning has aroused much indignation among the members of the Kennel Club and every precaution is being taken by them to guard their animals. There is strong feeling arising over the matter.

WINS PROMOTION

Hearty Send Off to St. John Man, Bank Manager, on Removal From Hantsport

F. G. Burr, son of Mrs. Catherine Burr, of Pitt Street, has won promotion in the Bank of New Brunswick service and is now manager of the branch at Aylesford, N. S. The following is a pleasing presentation at Hantsport on his departure from there:

The removal of F. G. Burr, the manager of the Bank of New Brunswick at Hantsport to Aylesford, was made the occasion of a very pleasant social gathering in the firemen's club, rooms of this town. Mr. Burr is a member of the club and was presented with a fine testimonial of regard and affection by the large number of friends who were present on the occasion. The presentation was made after a neat speech by George Ferguson, town clerk. Mr. Burr responded in his usual happy way and expressed his sincere regret at leaving the town where he had spent two very pleasant years. His remarks were received with loud applause.

A. M. Pattison, the mayor, was then called on and responded, in a speech in which he gave expression to the sincere regret of the citizens generally, and the business men of the town especially, at the departure of Mr. Burr, who by strict attention to the business of the bank, and a genial manner, had made it a pleasure to do business at the bank, and the Hantsport branch a very popular one. Town Councilors, Messrs. Murray and Comstock also made remarks, regretting sincerely the removal of Mr. Burr. Refreshments were then served and a very pleasant evening was spent. The meeting closed about eleven o'clock and all wished Mr. Burr every success in his new sphere of labor.

IN THE POLICE COURT

Two Assault Cases and Two Charges of Liquor Law Violation

In the police court this morning Daniel Hanlon was fined $20 for threatening to strike Mrs. W. Mason. Hanlon denied the charge, but the complainant swore that, besides attempting to strike her, he used bad language to her. The fine was therefore struck against him.

Mrs. Richard Myles was fined $30 for assaulting a five-year-old boy, a son of Mrs. J. Barton. The people are neighbors. Mrs. Barton said that on Tuesday last Mrs. Myles struck her son across the arm with a whip. Mrs. Myles denied the charge and was corroborated by William Wood, Robert Maxwell, Mrs. Robert Maxwell and Martin Templeton also testified that Mrs. Myles had struck the youngster. His Honor imposed the penalty stated.

A case against F. L. Peterson, charged with allowing an interdict to remain on his licensed premises in King Square, was set down for hearing on Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

A case against William Connell, charged with supplying liquor to an interdict was also adjourned.

The case against George Bramley will be continued this evening at eight o'clock.

R., who was here a few months ago. There is a possibility that they may come to St. John this week to conduct the mission to open on Sunday next in St. Peter's church. Rev. M. Maloney, C. S. S. R., who is to go to St. Patrick's Redemptorist church, Toronto, left today for Chipman where he will give a mission before leaving for Upper Canada, in about three or four weeks.
