

EXTENDING THE ORGANIZATION OF GIRL GUIDES

Patrols to be Established in Several Thousand Cities

The Rules Which the Girls Must Follow—Some Requirements Which Must Be Met in The Three Classes

Spokane, Wash., May 9.—Plans have been completed by Rev. David W. Ferry, pastor of Emmanuel Presbyterian church of Spokane, founder of the Girl Guides of America, to organize patrols in several thousand cities, towns and hamlets of the United States and Canada within the next six months. The chief aim of the movement is to supplement in a material way the training of girls, between the ages of eleven and eighteen years, for their particular sphere in life by inculcating womanly traits and refinement, with devotion to home and love of neatness and order and to fit them for emergencies.

"Be Prepared" is the motto of the organization, the emblem being a girl holding a torch, signifying that the guide's action will always be above reproach and will endeavor to be a guide to those in distress and light the pathway of others to all that is good and noble.

The following excerpts from the guide laws explain the purpose of the organization:

"A guide's first duty is to her home. She will gladly forego pleasure of any kind for the sake of that duty."

"A guide will endeavor to do a good turn to someone every day. In addition to being helpful in her own home, she will visit the sick and help the poor and be ready to assist others at all times."

"A guide will be honorable and trustworthy and womanlike in speech and behavior."

"A guide will be simple and modest in dress, never wearing anything extravagant or extreme in fashion or material."

"A guide will be respectful and obedient to her parents and teachers and all officers."

"A guide will be on the lookout for girls who are strangers, lonely, homeless or unhappy, and be ready to help them."

"A guide must take at least half hour's exercise every day, unless excused by the advice of a physician. She will sleep and work in the open air, and be cheerful at all times and under all circumstances, and endeavor to carry cheer and sunshine wherever she goes."

The plan of organization is similar to that of the Boy Scouts. A patrol is composed of from six to eight girls, the officers being a leader, at least fifteen years of age, and an assistant. Two or three form a company or troop under the leadership of a captain, who must be more than twenty-one years of age, and hold a certificate of appointment from the national headquarters. The captain appoints a lieutenant, who must be over sixteen years of age. The local council is composed of company leaders and others interested in the work. The court of honor is formed by the captain and leader and assistant.

Three Classes

There are three classes of guides. Before being enrolled as an apprentice, an applicant must present a letter of consent from parent or guardian, understand the guide laws, tie a bow, wrap a parcel, fold a dress correctly and take the following obligation:

"I promise on my word of honor, that I will endeavor to obey the Girl Guide laws at all times and that I will never willingly bring disgrace or dishonor on the Girl Guide Society."

An apprentice is required to pass these tests before becoming a second class guide. One month's service, elementary knowledge of first aid, the knot, the bow, the flag, a fire in a cool stove, using only dry wood and coal, with not more than three matches; prepare and pack a simple luncheon; how to find and point the direction of the north star and know the sixteen principal points of the compass; make an article of wearing apparel, and show a savings account of fifty cents.

The qualifications of the first class guide are to sketch the outline of a tree, house or landscape, to name ten wayside plants with their special uses or characteristics and recognize six trees or shrubs; to name and describe six birds; to describe the proper action in case of minor accidents and drowning, fire, escaping gas, poisoning, snakebite and fainting; to know location of ambulance, fire and police stations and the quickest means to reach them; to prepare and serve a meal of at least three courses to four persons without assistance, and to have a savings account of $1.

The guide uniform is a sailor suit of dark blue material and a sailor hat with a band of company colors. Each patrol is named after a favorite flower, for example: White Roses, in which event the patrol color is white and green. The flower design is worn as a crest on the left breast of the blouse.

AVOID DECEPTION

Use Netro's Herpicide Instead

Wearing artificial hair is a harmless deceit of which many ladies are guilty. These women are all objects for sympathy rather than criticism.

Early neglect in the care of the scalp has caused the loss of so much hair that their personal appearance is sadly marred. To correct this defect they resort to artificial hair.

Most ladies would resent an imputation of personal carelessness and neglect. And yet very many ladies neglect their natural hair to become no more than artificial.

All this is an unfortunate state of affairs. Hair is as necessary to a woman as food or clothing. It is the crown of her beauty and the badge of her womanhood. It is the glory of her face and the life of her hair.

That remedy is Netro's Herpicide, the Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer. This preparation in one dollar size bottles is sold and guaranteed everywhere.

Applications may be obtained at the best barber shops and hair dressing parlors. The Herpicide Co., Dept. R, Detroit, Mich., will send a nice sample and booklet to any address upon receipt of 10c in postage or silver. E. Clinton Brown, Special Agent, corner Union and Waterloo streets.

THE COUNTY COUNCIL

The county council will meet this afternoon in the council chamber of the court house. Among the recommendations of the finance committee are: That hereafter the county shall refuse to pay stenographers' fees in the county court; that bonds be issued under the Lancaster sewerage act to the amount of $50,000; and W. P. Barnhill be named as chairman of the sewerage board; also that the board be authorized to call for tenders for the construction of the sewer; that the clerk of the peace be paid in fees in future instead of salary; and that the application of Assessor James Lee for an increase of $100 in salary be refused. The buildings committee recommend that the county jail be wired for electric lights and repairs made to the building, etc.

LEGAL LABOR MATTERS

It is expected that at a meeting in the Opera House building on Monday night next, the machinists will organize a union. A committee has been appointed to arrange matters. At a meeting of the Hod Carriers and Building Laborers' Union last night it was decided to send a delegation to the annual convention of the International Union of Bricklayers and Masons, which is being held at St. John, N. B., and the majority of the contractors were in favor of paying $2 a day. The Dever and E. A. Allingham gave addresses.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL

"May I trouble you to pass the H. P.?" How many times in one day does this simple request go round the tables of these happy people who have been acquainted with H. P. and all its distinctive and good qualities?

It is no trouble at all to pass the H. P. provided that you know how to come round to you again, because it is self-evident not to be taken out of a man with a disinclination to H. P.

H. P. is a healthy, delicious, its flavors and the subtle expressions of choicest Oriental fruits and spices and pure malt vinegar. Its name, borne out by the letters "H. P." and a picture of the British Houses of Parliament upon the bottle, is a worth remembering by every man and woman who desires to taste, for the first time, a perfectly delicious sauce.

Plain Talk By President Taft

Washington, May 8.—President Taft indulged in some plain talk today in explaining to twenty-five members of the National Grange that he does not mean to play politics with the Canadian reciprocity agreement if the enactment of that measure by congress costs him the farmer vote.

The president told his hearers bluntly that he was sorry to learn that Republican farmers would desert the party if the agreement goes through, but no such desertion would change his conviction as to the wisdom of such legislation.

OPEN FESTIVAL OF EMPIRE ON FRIDAY NEXT

Wonderful Representations in Crystal Palace and Grounds

Thousands of People to Take Part; Thousands of Pounds Spent in the Preparations—Splendid Lighting Effects—Glorious Music

(Correspondence of Times)

London, April 27.—During the last six months 7,000 workmen and nearly half a million of money have been entirely revolutionized in the Crystal Palace and its 250 acres of grounds in readiness for the Festival of Empire which will be opened on May 12.

In the Crystal Palace, which has been repaired without and entirely redecorated within, will be an all-British Exhibition of arts and industries of a most comprehensive character while every endeavor has been made to render the various stands and stalls as interesting as possible.

On the opening day a great imperial concert will be given at which an imperial choir of more than 4,000 voices will appear together with various orchestras. Noted composers who will conduct their own works are Sir Hubert Parry, Bart., Sir Alcock Napier, Sir Henry Wood, and Dr. Charles Harford.

Under the direction of the concert will be a section of the exhibition will be in the parklike grounds of the Crystal Palace. Never before has a display of this kind been made in London.

In all some 300 buildings have been erected in the grounds, the largest ones being the pavilions of the Empire, which are reproductions of the Crystal Palace, and the pavilions of the Empire, which are reproductions of the Crystal Palace, and the pavilions of the Empire, which are reproductions of the Crystal Palace.

The huge pavilions of Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Newfoundland, and India are linked together by a mile and a half of electric line, the All Red Route which has been laid down at a cost of £200,000.

Other notable features of the Festival of Empire will be superb gardens, a 240,000 collection of old English curios, 600 specially selected paintings by modern British artists, an exhibition of child life, a gallery of photographs forming an empire album, and a stand containing two million pounds worth of diamonds.

There will be a camp of imperial cadets, naval and military tattoo, a gigantic carnival, an open-air concert, when 20,000 people will sing together, battles of flowers, flower shows, a parade of British giants, and firework displays.

It has often been contended that the Crystal Palace is a long way from London. This is no longer true, for the London, Brighton and South Coast Railway Company have electrified their lines from Victoria and London Bridge to the low level station which immediately adjoins the palace grounds. The journey will be in fifteen minutes.

This is the first time in sixty years that His Majesty's government has lent its patronage to an exhibition, and it should therefore be noted that all the profits derived from the Festival of Empire will be given to the King Edward VII. Hospital Fund.

That the Festival of Empire is in every way a desirable occasion may be judged from the fact that on June 30 King George, in celebration of his coronation, will entertain in the palace grounds 10,000 London children.

It is estimated that if there were but one potato in the world a careful cultivation might produce 10,000,000,000 from it in ten years and thus supply the world with need again.
