SIX ELEVATED TO PRIESTHOOD

Largest Number at One Time in History of St. John Diocese.

With impressive ceremony, His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception here this morning, solemnly to the dignity of the priesthood in the Catholic church six young men of the St. John diocese.

The church was filled to capacity with a congregation gathered to witness the beautiful ceremony. So far as is known, the ordination was without parallel in the annals of the St. John diocese in that never before have so many young men been raised to the priesthood at one time.

The ceremony took place at the mass which started at 8 o'clock and it was not until nearly 10 o'clock that the services were completed. Assisting His Lordship were Rev. Raymond McCarthy, 1st chaplain; Rev. Roy McDonald, 2nd chaplain; Rev. Louis Guerin of St. Joseph's, archdeacon; and Rev. Wm. M. Duke, master of ceremonies.

The newly ordained clergymen are: Rev. Alphonse Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris of St. John; received his preliminary education in the St. John schools and at St. Joseph's College, Miramichi; added to his theological course at Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax.

Rev. Michael Johnson of Newburgh, Carleton county, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnson; educated at St. Joseph's and at Holy Heart Seminary.

Rev. Camille LeBlanc of Barachois, Westmorland county, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse LeBlanc; received his primary education at Church Point and studied theology at Holy Heart Seminary.

Albert Lemanager, a native of Grand Digue, Kent county, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lemanager, now residing in Slociac; was student at St. Joseph's and Holy Heart Seminary.

Carson Keohan, son of Mrs. Jane Keohan of Fredericton road; educated at St. Joseph's College and completed his studies at the Quebec Seminary.

Rev. Charles Boyd of Fredericton, son of Mrs. Mary C. Boyd; was first a student in the Fredericton schools, later attended St. Joseph's College, and received his theological education at St. Augustine's Seminary in Toronto.

THE SPONSORS.

The candidates for the priesthood were placed in a semi-circle just inside the railing before the main altar, and seated beside each was the priest who was to be his sponsor. For Father Harris; Rev. J. J. McDermott of St. John the Baptist church, St. John, was with Father Boyd; Rev. A. P. Allen of Peterborough, was sponsor for Father Johnson; Rev. Charles Carroll of Moncton was with Father Keohan; Rev. Walter Donahue of Johnville, with Father Johnson; Rev. Francis Cormier of Barachois, with Father LeBlanc, and Rev. Henri Cormier of Moncton, with Father Lemanager.

Others present in the sanctuary included Rev. Monsignor P. L. Belliveau, Grand Digue; Rev. Wm. Hannigan, Sussex; Rev. W. Mallette, Sussex; Rev. C. P. Carleton, Silver Falls; Rev. Frank Cronin, Holy Trinity, St. John; and Rev. Eugene Reynolds and Rev. James Brown of the Cathedral, St. John.

At the completion of the ordination ceremony, and after the new priests had disrobed they returned to the chancel where they gave their respective blessings to the congregation in general. Later they were met in the vestry by many of the parishioners who received a personal blessing from their hands.

First Masses Tomorrow.

All the new priests will say their first mass tomorrow, it being high mass in each case. Rev. Father Harris will be the celebrant at the 11.30 o'clock high mass at the Cathedral, while the others will conduct their first ceremonies as follows:

Rev. Father Boyd at Fredericton; Rev. Father Keohan at Peterborough road; Rev. Father Johnson at Newburgh; Rev. Father LeBlanc at Barachois, and Rev. Father Lemanager at Grand Digue. All except Father Harris will leave for their respective homes this afternoon.

Of the six new priests five were classmates with several St. John boys at St. Joseph's and many of their former school friends were present at the ordination and were among the first to greet them after the ceremony.

Visitors Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Johnston and their sons, Edmund and Daniel of Newburg, Carleton county, and Gerald Maguire of Woodstock were in the city to attend the ordination of Mr. Johnson's brother, Rev. Michael Johnson which took place in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception this morning. While in the city they are guests at the home of Mrs. Margaret Connau and family in Somerset street.

SEES WIDENING USE OF MOVIES

F. G. Spencer, Home From New York, Speaks of Change.

The manufacturers of motion picture machines are looking for the great bulk of their future business, not to the theatres, but rather to the churches, Sunday schools and day schools, according to F. G. Spencer, owner of a string of theatres throughout the Maritime Provinces, who returned yesterday from a trip to New York, Boston and Upper Canada.

Mr. Spencer said that he was informed by the manufacturers that the use of the motion picture for educational purposes was growing rapidly and they predicted that it would not be many years before every public school and Sunday school on the continent, as well as a great many of the churches, would be using this means of education to assist the spoken word. He understood that at least one denomination planned organizing a company which would look after the production of films for use in its churches and Sunday schools.

Mr. Spencer, while on his trip, arranged bookings of several attractions for the coming season.

PRESENTATION TO GEO. A. VINCENT

The choir of Lunenburg street Baptist church and a few friends met at the home of Mrs. Geo. F. Burke, 183 King street, West End, last evening in a farewell party to Geo. A. Vincent, who is soon to leave for Detroit. Mr. Vincent has been identified with the church since he came to the city. He has been in the choir and other departments and his departure will mean a great loss to the church. After a short choir rehearsal the evening was pleasantly spent with games and music.

R. H. Parsons, on behalf of the choir, presented to Mr. Vincent a gold eyesharp pencil, suitably engraved. Mr. Parsons referred to the great loss felt by the choir in losing Mr. Vincent. Similar expressions of regret were made by Rev. W. A. Robbins, Miss M. E. Mullin, R. J. Rupert, C. K. Robbins and F. J. Punter. Mr. Vincent told of his regret in leaving and said he would always remember the pleasant times spent in Lunenburg street church. Refreshments were served by a committee under the direction of Mrs. Fannie Roxborough, Mrs. Wm. Gray and Mrs. K. Horton. The singing of "It Ain't Gonna Rain No More" and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I got a cold over two weeks ago."

"Yes, sir," said Hiram.

"I have had it ever since," said the reporter.

"Yes, sir," said Hiram.

"And now," said the reporter, "the cold has got me."

"I ain't surprised," said Hiram.

"Why are you not surprised?" asked the reporter.

"Because," said Hiram, "most folks when they feel a cold comin' on hums up a draught—or a place where there's a crowd an' the air's close an' the germs floatin' round—an' then expects to be all right. Now if you'd just spent one day in bed an' looked after yourself—an' then gone careful when you come out—then there cold wouldn't get you by the throat today. Some folks hes good sense—some folks haint. I aint mentionin' no names—but them that the shoe fits kin put it on—yes, sir."
