MISCELLANY. An Indiana editor makes a pathetic appeal to his readers, saying : "If there is anything you know that is worth knowing, that we ough to know, and you know that we don't know, please let us know it."

The mails having, for a week, failed to come to time in Arkansas town, the local paper says it has been forced to draw heavily on the al-manacs for copy, and if communication with the outer world should be still longer cut off. "No will be obliged next week to make ex-tracts from the Bible, thus supplying some of our readers, at least with matter entirely new to them." to them."

A chap of an inquiring turn of mind writes to a medical journal asking, How long does it take to starve to death? We can tell him how to solve this question every time : Let him start a weekly paper in Swamptown, and if he dosen't starve to death in two weeks we are no prophet to arybody. He might short-en the space considerably by making the paper a daily.

Some wags were walking around in an agricultural implement store, and they chanced to see in the rear a dressed heg hanging by a book to the wall. "If a! ha !" cried they to the book to the wall. "Hall hal" cried they to the young man in attendance, "what sort of an ag-ricultural implement do you call that?" That, he said, "is a patent combined root grubber; cornsheller, apple-grinder, gats lifter, double-action, hack-spring sod-plough; but I guess you won't want one, for it takes a mighty smart man to manage am smart man to manage 'em."

AN IMPORTANT MATTER .- Here is a hint for housekeepers, and a very important one Merely covering up a bed with blankets and counterpanes will no more protect it from dampness or keep it dry than a pane of glass will keep out light. The atmospheric moist-ure will penetrate all woven fabrics. Hence the importance of keeping the beds in spare rooms regularly aired. Many a dear friend or welcome visitor has been sent to an untime ly grave, or afflicted for life with diacase by being put into a bed which had been permitted to stand unoccupied. Keep the spare beds when not in use, free from all covering, but a light spread.

A prisoner in the Jeffersonville. Ind., penitentiary attempted to escape a few days ago by getting himself nailed up in a box by a companion. One end was arranged so that he could open it by pulling a string He was carried out with the other boxes labelled "wag on spokes" and deposited in the warehouse.— One end was arranged so that he Unfortunally for his plans the box was placed on the wrong end, and he was compelled to stand on his head. He bore it bravely for about twenty minutes, and then startled the hystanders by crying out, "Turn this box up the other way." Something of a panic ensu-ed, but the box was finally opened and the convict was returned to his old quarters.
