LUMBER OPERATIONS.

WHAT IS BEING DONE ON THE UPPER ST. JOHN.

The Parties Who Have Crowned Work and the Amount of Lumber They Expect to Cut—Other Interesting Points on the Lumber Situation.

At one time this year it was predicted that the season's work would be a very small scale or that perhaps there would be no work done in the woods. The lumber cut on the upper St. John last winter was not large, but the season's work might be called a fair one.

As the season advanced, the work was being done on the upper St. John, and the amount of lumber being cut was larger than usual. The low prices and lack of demand caused by the dullness of trade on both sides of the Atlantic made matters very discouraging in the lumber business. Then for a time the business was somewhat better.

The principal operators in the upper river counties this winter and the amount of lumber they expect to get out are as follows: Messrs Kilburn & McLaughlin on the South West branch about six millions; Gilman Bros. on Black River, four millions; Cyrus Dickson, Seven Islands, three millions; John Stevens for Cushing & Co., two millions; A. M. Decker on Black River, one million; John A. Morrison, main river, one million; Robert Connor, one million; John A. Morrison, main river, one million; John A. Morrison, main river, one million; W. H. Canfield at Allagash, five millions; W. J. Noble for Messrs Cushing & Co., three millions; Neil McLean, two millions; Daniel Cleburn at St. Francis, five millions; James Boyd, two millions; Thomas Blair one million; B. W. Mallory & Co. five millions; Darius Nixon, five millions; David Kewick on Grand River three millions; James Burgess two millions; making among the parties of the upper river nearly 60 millions. Besides these are a number of smaller operators. There are quite a number of crews at work in the Arctostock where it is expected that about twenty five millions will be cut. The principal operators there are Dan Broak and Messrs Beare, Vinal and Messrs. Jones.

REPELLED FROM THE ARMY. Actual Charges Against Capt. Bolman and His Men—The Story of the Incident.

London, Nov. 30.—The actual charges made against Capt. Bolman and his men, which led to their being struck from the army list, are not yet known, but the conditions that brought about the incident are as follows: The 1st Battalion of the Arctostock where it is expected that about twenty five millions will be cut. The principal operators there are Dan Broak and Messrs Beare, Vinal and Messrs. Jones.

FROM HALIFAX. Fashionable Meetings—A Nice Party at the Victoria Hotel.

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 2.—Thomas Payne, manager of the firm of John Silver & Co. and a popular member of the Victoria Club was married this afternoon in St. Andrew's church to Miss Jean Taylor daughter of William Taylor.

A question has arisen as to whether the supreme court can hear election petitions during the regular sittings of the court. The full bench will meet tomorrow to decide it. Should a decision be given in the negative all of the dates set down on which the various election petitions were to be tried will have to be changed.

The Empress of Japan. SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. YOKOHAMA, Dec. 2.—Empress of Japan arrived here today.

Liverpool Cotton Market. SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. LIVERPOOL, Dec. 2.—Cotton market closed today. Transactions in this month, however, continued very limited. The closing price yesterday was 68 cents. The first sale today was at 70 cents. There was a long wait without any trading, and finally 74 cents was paid; then 75 cents was secured for some, and that was the closing price.

The Evening Journal says: The wind-up of the November corn deal would seem to prove the assertion that the Chicago side was nothing but a side show to a big career in New York. Some favor the belief that Canada's heavy shipment of corn to New York to cover his contracts there were the cause of the pitch here. The advance in price in Chicago is also evidence that some persons were having the screws turned on them in the former city today. The receipts were 700 cars, mostly new corn, only 150 cars in splendid demand to fill contracts.

The manipulators of the "corners" had to buy in order to keep up the price. It has been a very quiet, but a very strong corner, made by a party heretofore unsuspected of ability to successfully carry out a plan of this kind, but they were favored by circumstances. The deal is in removal of several operators on the wrong side had detailed on their contracts.

FIRST EDITION. A RULER IN IGNORANCE.

CHINA'S EMPEROR HAS NO THEORY OF IMPENDING WAR.

Imperial Troops Defeated by the Rebels Were the Flower of the Army—Europeans in Shanghai Alarmed—Peking Was Reported and Soldiers Called to Its Defense.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 30.—Additional information regarding the defeat of the imperial troops by the Mongolian rebels states that many of the former deserted to the rebels, being evidently in sympathy with them, and that the Emperor is said to be kept ignorant of the military arrangements.

According to the peculiar methods prevalent at the Peking court, the young Emperor is said to be kept ignorant of the dangerous condition of affairs, and is entirely taken up with his recent military arrangements.

The war minister is threatened with disgrace for not having directed the expedition among the troops, and they are low on hand.

Europeans in Shanghai are getting more and more alarmed. A leading British merchant said today: "It would not be a serious loss, either for China or the world if the present dynasty should be overthrown, for the present Emperor has been utterly lacking in any ability for ruling an empire like China. The Mongol tribes must have learned something of the weakness and degeneracy of the government, or they would not have undertaken this war."

Let them be turned loose from Manchuria to Tonkin and the prospect is fearful for the future of the empire.

A Peking telegram says that troops have been summoned from the outlying districts to defend the capital, and that the authorities have some fear of a popular rising.

FREEDOM OF DEBATE. Debate in City Council—The Aldermen, Election—Concert in Aid of Victoria Hospital—etc., etc.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE. FREEDOM OF DEBATE. FREEDOM OF DEBATE. FREEDOM OF DEBATE.

Frederick, Dec. 2.—At last night's meeting of the city council, Ald. Taylor said to be an applicant for the office of mayor, moved that the property-holders be required to pay half or any portion of the cost of the asphalt road to be laid on the street.

The motion was out of order, there was no question on the subject.

At last night's annual meeting of the Victoria Club, the following officers were elected and installed: A. I. Haining, W. M. C. W. Currie, D. M. E. B. Booth, secretary; W. M. Clark, recording secretary; Andrew Lindsay, financial secretary; H. H. Pitt, treasurer; Norman McDonald, director of the Victoria Club and a popular member of the Victoria Club was married this afternoon in St. Andrew's church to Miss Jean Taylor daughter of William Taylor.
