From Friday's Daily:—Dr. Dowle, of Chicago, head of the Zion movement, has wired Elmer Eugene Brooks, who was committed to jail for a term of three months in connection with the death of the Rogers children, that an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court of Canada.

—Augustus Van Sickle died early this morning at the Old Men's Home. He was a native of Jersey City, N. Y., and seventy-five years of age. He came to this province forty-four years ago, and engaged in mining. He entered the Old Men's Home two and a half years ago.

—A letter was received in the city this morning from Speaker Booth, who has been so ill at his home in Salt Spring Island. Mr. Booth states that he feels a little stronger, but that he is still unable to quit his bed, although he hopes to be able to sit up in a chair in a few days.

—Dr. Llewellyn Jones, of this city, was married in Vancouver on the 15th to Elsie, daughter of W. Gordon, of Vancouver, by Rev. H. G. F. Clinton. They left for England to spend their honeymoon. Miss Gordon was until recently head nurse of the Jubilee hospital.

—S. P. Brown, general agent of the White Pass route, who was in the city yesterday, returned to the Sound last evening. While here Mr. Brown said the railway rates in the North will be greatly reduced this year, and an endeavor will be made to take goods into Dawson at lower prices than ever heretofore quoted.

—Messrs. Helmecken, McPhillips and Hayward returned last evening from New Westminster, where they went to attend the opposition caucus. They report that the gathering was most harmonious, and the assurances were received by letter in addition to that given by the attendance of eleven members, which leaves no doubt that the opposition party will dominate the next House.

—The remains of the late E. A. Booth were conveyed to their last resting place in Ross Bay cemetery this afternoon. —The earthquake which caused such destruction in Guerrero County, Mexico, on Thursday last, as chronicled in the local press, was felt by the seismograph at the Victoria meteorological station. The instrument recorded the preliminary tremor at 4:02 p.m., while the shock proper, which caused so much damage, was recorded at 4:17. Vibrations, however, continued from the time of the preliminary tremors up till the maximum shock. The seismogram, or photograph record of the seismograph, shows that the vibration here was not a large one, the maximum being about one-sixteenth of an inch. The seismic disturbance on Thursday last was not recorded on the local instrument.

—The city council for 1902 will hold the first session to-night. The result of Thursday's election makes quite a change in the aldermanic circle, which faces the chief magistrate. Ald. Hall's familiar countenance will not be in evidence, while another will occupy the seat which has held Ald. Cooley for the past two terms. A new form will sit behind Ald. Stewart's desk, while other orators will expound their theories from the places so long held by Aids. Beck with and Brydon. Of the city council which has presided over the destinies of Victoria for two years there remain the mayor and Aids. Kinsman, Cameron, Williams and McKechnie. Graham, Worthington, Vincent and Barnard are the new hands who will take up the reins of municipal government in conjunction with those whom the electorate endorsed last Thursday. A few communications will be disposed of, but the principal business will likely be the appointment of committees for the term just commenced.

Workmen Make Valuable Discovery in No. 3 Tunnel. Probably one of the most noteworthy discoveries in a mine which appears to be productive of none but rich surprises, was made a day or so ago in the Lenora. The workmen employed on the main ledge in No. 3 tunnel discovered a vein of exceedingly high grade ore, superior to any yet struck, and although up to the time of going to press full particulars of its extent had not been gained, there is every ground for the expectation that it will prove inexhaustible. It was not the case it would hardly be worthy of a place in a mine such as the Lenora is known to be. The strike has caused no end of comment in the camp, and it is an additional argument in favor of the smelter, which will shortly be doing business at Osborn Bay. It is also understood that in the north ledge in the same tunnel the ore runs as high as three ounces in gold, and very high in copper and silver. With such a combination being disclosed every short while, the management may well be pardoned a display of optimism regarding the future of their wonderful mine.

found and extinguished an incipient blaze, which would soon have destroyed the structure. —Sloop Shearwater, a sister to the Condor, arrived at Monte Video on December 27th en route to this station. She was to leave on January 2nd for Sandy Point. The sloop was carrying 200 tons of coal. The Waspette reached San Jose on December 23rd.

—The Manhattan troopship, which left Halifax a few days ago with part of the 3rd Mounted Rifles, on her homeward voyage brought a number of invalided and time-expired men who have been at the front with the British forces. Of the number there are two British Columbians, invalided, namely George McArthur, of Westminister, and V. C. D. Stewart, of Victoria.

—The following are the officers of Loyal Fernwood lodge, C. O. O. F., for the present quarter: N. G., A. S. Robertson; V. G., Bro. O. Jeppon; Secretary, G. E. Wilkinson; treasurer, W. P. Fullerton; C. L. Walton; ward, Bro. A. Wilson; R. S. N. G., Bro. W. H. Nathan; L. S. N. G., Bro. J. Barker; R. S. V. G., Bro. T. W. Carter; L. S. V. G., Bro. T. P. Marshall; Bro. J. G. Cooley; I. S. Robertson, P. G.; W. O. Carter, P. G., and A. Manson, P. G. This commenced a series of social evenings that will be held this winter by both Fernwood and Dauntless lodges.

—The funeral of Mrs. Eckstein took place from the family residence, Menzies street, this afternoon. —New instructions have been issued to the officer in charge of the quarantine at San Francisco for the inspection of all British Columbia steamers at late as 9 p. m. in the winter time, and 10 p. m. in the summer months.

During a heavy snowstorm there on December 20th a man by the name of Barney Wilkins, with two dogs and a sled, left Taku city, following the royal mail train. Since then nothing has been heard of him, and it is believed that he was lost in the snowstorm.

—Sergeant of Detectives Thos. Palmer has received the sad news of his father's death in Boston, Lincolnshire, England. He was sixty years of age and until last fall was in good health. Like his sons and other members of the family he has long been connected with the police, retiring from the Metropolitan department with a pension in 1870, after twenty-one years service. He was a sergeant for twelve years.

—The recital by Miss Maude Underhill, ecologist, of Victoria, at the Temperance hall, South Saanich, on Thursday, the 23rd, will not be the least of the many excellent attractions furnished by the Temperance Society this winter. Miss Underhill is already well known in Victoria and other cities for quality of work and taste in selection. Her introduction to Saanich will undoubtedly be a rare treat. Music and songs by local talent will also aid in making it a pleasing event.

—A meeting of the executive of the Liberal association was held last evening in the Pioneer hall, at which a good representation was present. Some discussion took place over the election of delegates to the Liberal convention at Vancouver on the 30th inst., and a resolution was passed asking the provincial executive, which meets to-morrow, to postpone if possible the date of meeting for one week in consequence of the Dominion bye-election taking place within a few days. On receipt of their decision a meeting will be called to elect delegates to said convention, of which ample notice will be given.

—J. T. Wilkinson, of the Vancouver Province, is in the city, having arrived from Seattle, where he attended the North Pacific Fair Association, which has just been organized. The association is composed of racing organizations of British Columbia, Washington, Oregon and Idaho, and the main purpose of the meeting was to complete a continuous circuit throughout the Northwest. Fall racing will open in Seattle on August 18th, and close on the Victoria track, November 2nd. J. A. Fullerton was elected vice-president for Vancouver, and E. Leighton, secretary. A Wednesday evening the visitors were entertained to a banquet. Mr. Wilkinson is about to construct a race track at Onli-track, which will be utilized during hot months. He intends having a thoroughly up-to-date course, surpassing those of Vancouver and Victoria.

—Eg. Ald. John Hall saved the little Areed, near the park, from destruction yesterday afternoon. The stand is unattended during the winter, and some boys had found their way in and had started a roaring fire, which they subsequently left. Mr. Hall saw smoke coming from the place, and going in

THE NEW FLIRY.

Great Northern Will Build Ships at Liverpool—The Nainaimo-Victoria Steamship Service.

Capt. Simon Mackenzie came over from Seattle this morning, where he has been for several days in consultation with Great Northern officials in regard to the ferry service between Liverpool and Sidney. He found Vice-President Hill and the other officers of the road very favorably impressed with the development now going on, and in prospect on Vancouver Island, and he received an assurance that work would commence at once on the slip at Liverpool, and that work on it will be completed in about ten days, and in about the same time the Terminal railway will be completed into the Market building. There will then be retained the work at Liverpool to the complete link with the Mainland, to be undertaken by Engineer Stephenson, of the G. N., himself, overseeing the work there.

Regarding the daily boat service between Nainaimo and Nainaimo, the captain states that it will be forthcoming in time for the summer trade. He sought to charter the steamer Comox, which plies from Vancouver to Texas, but this was prohibitive. A stern wheeler would be in every way suitable for the trade, and it is possible that one will be secured. The three hundred foot new steamer at Sidney will also be ready to run along side of the new steamer, and of the speedy transfer of freight and passengers to the vessel.

NANAIMO POLITICS.

Hot Meeting Held at the Coal Town on Saturday.

There were two warm meetings in Nanaimo on Saturday afternoon and evening, in which the differences between the Conservatives, Hawthornthwaite and Ralph Smith were ventilated. Mr. Smith, at the meeting of the Labor party in the afternoon, disclaimed knowledge of the suitability of Hawthornthwaite and Smith to be members of the party. The sense of the meeting in the afternoon was that officers of the Labor party must be straight labor men, but that Conservatives and Liberals might affiliate. Dr. McKechnie resigned from the presidency of the party and was succeeded by Geo. Johnston. In the evening a public meeting was held at which Mr. Hawthornthwaite made a number of charges against Ralph Smith, accusing him of sentiments antagonistic to the interests of labor. Mr. Smith replied in some length to the charges, scoring the extreme Socialists, and referring in severe terms to some newspapers which have recently been assailing him. At the meeting Mr. Smith's friends heartily cheered him.

Honolulu, Jan. 10, via San Francisco Jan. 17.—Active work has been begun on the Kona Kau railroad, which is to start from Kailua, on the Kona coast of Hawaii, and run across the western end of the southern coast of that island. A formation that is called a new island has been observed of late between the foot of the Diamond head on the southern coast of this island. It is at the head of Niu stream, where the detritus has washed into the sea until the deposits have piled up to the surface. Tides running between separate the formation from the land, but palm trees and others washed down by the floods are taking root, and a small isle is forming.

James Dunsmuir at Extension yesterday upon the question of opening Alexandria mine again. Mr. Dunsmuir is said to have given them no hopes that he would do so, upon the grounds that the demand for coal did not warrant such a move.

DARING ESCAPE OF ELEVEN PRISONERS.

HOW DESPERATE MEN MADE WAY FROM JAIL.

Counterfeiters, Murderers and Robbers Among Those for Whom Prison Guards Are Searching.

Tacoma, Jan. 20.—Eleven of the most desperate prisoners in the United States penitentiary on McNeill's island made their escape between 1 and 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, and up to a late hour last night were still at liberty. It was the most daring and successful jail break ever attempted in this state. The character of the men implicated makes it doubtful whether they will be retaken without loss of life.

The men in large array: W. D. Snyder, Idaho, robber; James Campbell, Nome, pickpocket; Thomas Morton, Nome, burglar; Frank Almsworth, Nome, larceny; Mike Williams, Spokane, counterfeiter; Harry Davis, Nome, and Frank Moran, true name Ed. O'Neill, Spokane, counterfeiter; J. P. Stewart, Idaho, counterfeiter; Bruce Kenwright, Nome, manslaughter; Jas. Carroll, Alaska, murderer.

A hole in the brick wall of the cell No. 10, occupied by Snyder and Davis, revealed the means of escape. The wall was about a foot in thickness and the floor of the cell is of equal thickness, covered with concrete. A tunnel was dug at the junction of the wall and floor, sloping outwardly until it formed a connection with the air chamber about two feet below, and a foot outwardly from the corridor wall of the cell.

Through this air chamber the prisoners crawled about forty feet to where they opened into the boiler room, the opening being covered by an iron grating. This obstacle was overcome by the use of saws and files, and only to work out of the back door of the boiler room. Across the yard and scale the board fence. A few yards from the prison grounds the dense growth of timber afforded them temporary safe shelter. The prisoners took advantage of the latitude allowed them during the dinner hour to consummate their plans. The guards, with the exception of two, who were on duty on the wall overlooking the corridor, were eating dinner in the dining room. A dinner gang was at work putting the tables in order, and the other convicts and the privilege of the corridors. One by one the men slipped through the hole in the wall and crawled through the hole unnoticed. When the guards came on the scene the prisoners were in flight, and the prisoners were missing. Warden Palmer at once sent a squad of guards in pursuit and made a tour of the island with thirty men guarding the shore line, and it is believed by the officers that if the men were still on the island at 9 o'clock last night their escape will be blocked.

"The Man From Glengarry" is, without doubt, the cleverest story before the American people to-day, and the best of it is that it is purely a Canadian story, by a Canadian author—Ralph Connor (Rev. C. W. Gordon, Winnipeg). It has had a phenomenal sale amongst those who read it for high prices for such books, but the Family Herald says Weekly Star, of Montreal, has done the right thing for Canada by purchasing the right to publish it in that great paper, and the first chapters are announced for January 29th issue. Family Herald subscribers will enjoy this great story, and its publication is sure to add thousands of new readers for that wonderful family paper. This story alone is worth the year's subscription price (one dollar), not to speak of the three handsome pictures that are sent to each subscriber.

FROM MY LADY'S HAIR

Into quite a fancy affair has been made a plain little linen turnover collar. To longer a tiny straight band, for the ease of keeping fresh the ribbon or a worn underneath, but it is full of novel and practical designs.

At first, when there was noticed a tinge of gray in the hair, the remedy was to use a hair restorative. But now, when the hair is thinning, the remedy is to use a hair restorative. But now, when the hair is thinning, the remedy is to use a hair restorative.

Colored like a makes very pretty collar as one sometimes desires a change from the popular and always pretty white and these colored linens are made at the same design with a sprinkling of French knots. In fact, this old collar from the past is being revived.

There is something youthful looking about a girl's face when she wears a collar of this kind. The color is soft and delicate, and the design is simple and elegant.

These collars, you know, have grown quite as much a part of the outfit as the skirt or the gloves; especially is this the case with the exquisite house and afternoon gowns are made with high standing collars, embroidered to resemble lace, and in such cases mousseline, pique, silk and all kinds of delicate textures are used and set with tiny bands.

Neckwear is always interesting, and a girl's face when she wears a collar of this kind. The color is soft and delicate, and the design is simple and elegant.
