ST. JOHN NOT KNOWN IN WEST

That Interferes With Our Passenger Trade.

Allan Line's Passenger Traffic Manager Talks of Prospects for the Winter Season Here

George Hannah, passenger traffic manager of the Allan Line S. S. Co., was in the city today and had a long conference with Messrs. Wm. Thomson & Co., the local agents of the line. Mr. Hannah arrived at Halifax the other day from Bermuda and will leave this evening for Montreal, his headquarters. Mr. Thomson, representative of the Allan Line, said that it was too early in the season to predict large or small business. This was particularly true of this week and next as the St. Lawrence was not yet closed to navigation and consequently shipping would not be sent here till the last steamer had left Montreal. The last Allan line boat to sail from the St. Lawrence will be the Pretorian, and she is due to sail in a day or so. A drawback to the winter passenger traffic was that in the west St. John was not known as well as Boston and New York and that in consequence this port and Halifax suffered to a great extent. The steamship companies had to rely entirely on a certain class of trade in a limited district. He expects that there will be a good Christmas trade this year and that the Bavarian, one of their finest ships, and the next to sail after the Ionian, will have not only a big freight but a big passenger list. Mr. Hannah is particularly pleased with the splendid run made by the Ionian from Moncton to Halifax, the distance being covered in seven days and four and a half hours, a record winter passage.

IONIAN AND MONTROSE.

Two Allan Boats, First of Winter Season in Port—Montrose Came This Morning

Two winter port steamers have arrived and are docked at Sand Point. The Allan liner Ionian, Capt. John Brown, was the first to arrive. She reached here Sunday morning and docked at 7:40 o'clock. At Halifax the Ionian landed a large number of immigrants. She brought here 22 second cabin and 22 steerage passengers. This number twenty-seven are en route to the United States points and after all had undergone the usual examination by the immigration officials, they were only six of the number detained. Three of these were enroute to the States and three for Canada points. Those who passed examination will be sent to their destinations this evening. The Ionian has a fairly large cargo, including a quantity of fruit. This morning the C. P. R. steamer Montrose, Capt. Evans, returned up the harbor and as the tide was just right was quickly docked. At Halifax the Montrose came from London via Antwerp and made a splendid run across arriving here a day before she was expected. She has 314 passengers and a good cargo.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 21.—The interest in the meetings of the Zemstvo representatives is intense. Nothing else is talked of. Liberals from all parts of the empire are flocking into the city, including many from Poland and Finland. The hotel lobbies are crowded. The permission granted by Interior Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky was for an assembly of three hundred of the participants. They display complete confidence in the protection afforded by the minister and his more outspoken sentiments. The situation altogether is unparalled. Nothing approaching such a gathering has ever before been permitted in Russia. As evidence of the remarkable state of affairs it is necessary to mention that one of the most prominent speakers yesterday was Trunkewich, who spent twenty-five years in exile, and who had only been allowed to return since Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky's advent to the capital. Nevertheless the most able men in the assembly are counselling moderation and are doing everything possible to prevent demonstrations which might compel interference. One of the strongest members of the conference said to the Associated Press: "We want to make our position plain to the government but we desire to avoid every appearance of lawlessness. I sincerely hope the meeting will be productive of great good. We hope and expect that all provincial and district Zemstvos will follow our lead and demonstrate to the government that the voice of the people is unanimous in the demand for a direct share in the government by the people." At the meeting of the delegates today section nine of the memorial by a vote of 105 to 3 was strengthened into a practical recommendation for a parliament; the motion being changed to a specific declaration in favor of an elective body to make the country's laws. Sympathetic demonstrations are reported in various parts of Russia.

Sultan Says He Objects to Bargain Prices—Powers Warns Him to Be Careful

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 21.—The British embassy has joined the American legation in insisting on the cessation of interference with the sale of Bibles in certain localities. It appears that the British and Foreign Bible Society has had trouble at Ulukup. The sultan says that the reason for the opposition is that the Bibles are being sold at ridiculously low prices and that the sales partake of the nature of a propaganda.

SUDDEN DEATH IN MONCTON.

(Special to the Star) MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 21.—Fred Cole, aged 34, died very suddenly this morning. The deceased complained of earache on Friday last and as the pain got worse a doctor was sent for but the ailment got worse on Saturday. Yesterday he lapsed into unconsciousness and died this morning at 4:30. Death was due to meningitis of the brain. He had previously been in good health and the case is rather an unusual one. Deceased was a son of Capt. Silas Cole, formerly of Dorchester, and brother of E. C. Cole of E. C. Cole & Co., by whom he was employed. Fulton Cole, a well known commercial traveller of Montreal, and Chas. Cole of New York, are also brothers of the deceased. He leaves a wife and three children.

FAMOUS LABEL SUIT ENDED.

(Special to the Star) MONCTON, Nov. 21.—The famous Cooke-Blakeley libel suit ended today when in the court of Kings Bench Crown Prosecutor Lafontaine announced that they wished to drop the case, declaring they did so in the belief that such a course would be acceptable to the defence, to which Mr. Crankshaw, counsel for the defence objected. Mr. Justice Hall set a date for hearing motion for costs which will be very heavy.
