SPRING

BY G. LISSLES BANKS.

The Spring, the Spring is come again—
The youth, the lair, the sunny Spring;
The flowers are hastening to the plain,
The bird returns on joyous wing.
Creation spreads her gentle arms,
Where'er appears th' enlivening ray,
And wins from beauty's peerless charms
Assemblance of eternal day.

Up, up, and watch th' awak'ning sun
Emerging from yon distant sky;
Already is his race begun,
And paths of glory open lie.
He comes to cheer the mourning earth,
To wake the soil and the trees,
And give the voice of music birth,
In sounds responsive to the breeze.

Now childhood, with its laughing eyes,
Seeks out once more the healthful fields,
And, like an uncaged captive, flies
So taste the sweets which freedom yields.
On every hill, in every grove
Some note of gladness meets the ear,
Which breaths of universal love
And tells the joyful Spring is here.

Kind Heaven! whose ever gracious hand,
Doth all the works of nature span,
Again thou visites the land
With blessings for the heart of man,
We own the boundless mercies giv'n,
To him who reigns supreme in heav'n,
The author of the gentle Spring.

"Opposition is the Life of Trade."

CITY CLOTHING and General Outfitting Mart,

South side of the Market Square.

JOHN ANDERSON

HAS received per late arrivals, a large assortment of CLOTHS, Trimmings, Fur, Caps and every other article connected, suitable for his Trade, which is too numerous to particularize in the columns of a newspaper, direct from the Manufacturers, and having made up a great part of the Cloth into

WINTER CLOTHING,

suitable for the Gent, the Farmer, the Mechanic the Labourer, and the Seafaring Man; all of which he is now selling off at such low prices for Cash, as he considers a nimble sixpence better than a slow shilling, that is impossible he can be UNDERSOLD!

And if it's any criterion to judge by, the subscriber has sold and is selling more clothing than any other store in the city.

P. S.—Parties desirous of having their Clothes made to order, can have them done so expeditiously and in a superior style, as the subscriber has in his employment a foreman who cuts in the Vasroo system—a certain method of ensuring a good fit—and keeps none but first rate Workmen in his concern.

☞ A further supply is expected per Marshall Bennett from London. Nov. 21

A NEW SYSTEM OF MODERN

GEOGRAPHY,

PRINCIPALLY DESIGNED FOR USE IN

COLONIAL SCHOOLS.

COMPILED BY

James Paterson, L. L. D.

AS an elementary work very great care has been taken to avoid two very common evils—that of extreme brevity on the one hand, and of too great prolixity on the other. As a Class Book for British Colonial Schools it is certainly unequalled, being the only one ever got up expressly for their use. It is printed on good paper, from a clear and distinct type, and substantially bound, for the astonishing low price of Five Shillings.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR

Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the 'Great English Remedy.'

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great and only remedy for this awful malady, and is now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike ASTONISHING AND TRIUMPHANT.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs, Inflammation of the Lungs, Croup, &c. it is unrivaled. But the Proprietor is so confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the worst forms of consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid:—the agent or proprietors of other medicines date not claim for their preparations a power like this: they know that in no case have such effects been produced:—the grand object and purpose of the common 'remedies' is simply to give relief—not to cure; this is easily done by an intelligent Physician or Druggist; but while daily trifling with these delusive compounds, the patient rapidly declines, and every day places him farther and farther beyond the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam. It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy—a grand healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]

There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life," which the medical faculty are unable to discover, or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
