THE time has again arrived when you are called upon to perform a sacred duty, entrusted to you by virtue of your franchise as citizens. You have seen your taxes increased, and increasing!! You have seen your taxes increased, and increasing!! You have seen your city's property giren to favourites at nominal rents or allowed to remain unproductive!!! It is for you then to say, it this state of things shall continue; or if by a faithful discharge of your duty, in olecting honest and energetic men to serve in the Common Council, you will furnish the remedy. Having said this much, I place myself at your disposal, by offering for the Office of COUNCILLAOR of Wellington Ward, at the coming Election, Pledging myself if elected to perform my duty, fearless y and faithfulty.
