

LIBRARY.

The institution is furnished with a Library of nearly 500 newly selected Volumes of general reading and for reference, also a Reading Room.

A Cabinet of Geological and Botanical Specimens, and of historical and general Curiosities and Illustrations of Natural History has been commenced and will be carried on as rapidly as circumstances will allow. More than a thousand Geological Specimens are in the Cabinet, containing an assortment of the Fossils of all the strata, both of this Continent and of Europe. Additions are constantly being made to this collection under the supervision of Prof. Wright. Contributions and exchanges are invited.

APPARATUS, MAPS, &c.

The Institution is furnished with a fine set of Maps, Globes, Physiological Charts, a Microscope and Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus.

SOCIETIES.

A Literary Society has been formed among the Students, styled the Society of "Reapers." It is presided over by a member of the Faculty. Its object is improvement in Composition, &c. Its paper is styled the "Sheaf," which is read at stated periods before the students.

MERIT ROLL.

A record of Standings, literary and moral, is daily kept, and cards corresponding to this record are given to students weekly, and should be transmitted to parents for their information. An Honor Card is received by pupils entitled to it, at the end of each term.

HONORS OF THE INSTITUTION.

Two courses of study have been established, a Classical and an English; and Diplomas will be given to those who have satisfactorily completed either of them. The title of M.L.A., or Mistress of Liberal Arts, is given for the former, and M. E. L., or Mistress of English Literature, for the latter. Certificates may be had by those who have passed examinations in a partial course.

A good moral standing is necessary in order to obtain either Certificate or Diploma.

BOARDING, &c.

The Institution, as a home, is designed to be the abode of comfort and pleasant associations.

Rooms are carpeted and furnished throughout, so that the pupil requires nothing in addition.

The provision for the table is wholesome and abundant.

GOVERNMENT.

It is intended that the Government of the Institution shall be firm without being arbitrary; that it shall be founded upon confidence in the
