models; worthy nanners

th, and or -look-her eye pressed ly, and mpart a sec.

ag been ntist in touched a very e bien uite so arai ce.

ouse of our lidy-

even a , after people' costessdst of a rfectly

and the -well-refined ooking.

bat bue

ladies

ectively

noured enough

Their

ddrest-

n Mc.

some-of the er and spirit,

g her lady rely in placid-

a face masses

gentle-wonder

g for-n, and air of torget-lad he

Mug-

t that civil have

d with ated to ith an ll who

what fairly lissful.

round

ded to young saw a lite.'

ucated

of the

Sunday Reading

Bear Me Afar.

Bear me afar, beyond this star,

Ye messengers of peace,
From sin and shame, from fear and blame,
Where sorrows never cease;
Bear me to him, through shadows dim
Revolving round this sphere,
To realms of light where spirits bright
Shall wash away each tear.

Bear me afar, beyond the star,

He ame sar, beyond the star,
Ye messengers of joy;
Ufoa his trast, ob, let me rest,
Whom death could not destr.y;
He knows my sin, but "enter in"
Will shout the gladsome throng,
"The wayward soul has reached his goal Taough wandering far and long."

Ye messengers of God;
His love is great, 'tis ne'er too late
For Christ has shed his blood, And by that deed, for us in need, Salvation beams on high,
"Twill ever shin-, that love divine,
Which glowed on Cavalry.

Bear me afar, be ond the star,

The Shadow of a Great Rock

It was the vision of more prosperor times for the people of God that Isaiah saw. He was looking to the more benetolent reign of Hezekiah or Sennacherib. And yet there was a wider view of things, a more distant horizon that was swept within his vicion. The prophet spoke first of all the blessings immediately in store for Israel. He spoke also of the ultimate and larger blessings in store for the world through the kingdom of Jesus Christ. It was Jesus of N. zareth who should 'be as a hiding place from the wind, and as a covert from the tempest, as rivers of water in a dry place, and as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.'

The rock and its shadow suggest the dea of refuge. In the cleft of rocks and behind them men have found natural for resses in times of war. When David was fleeing before Saul he found retuge in the rocks of Engedi. When Elijah fled from the cruel J. zebel be hid himself in the rocks of Horeb. When Samson was hiding from his Philistice foes he found refuge in the lime stone cliffs of Elam. When Leonidas and his gallant Greeks would stem the tide of Persian invasion, he took his stand in the rocky pass of Thermopyale. And this thought is often coming to the surface in the scriptures. Like a spring of water it reeps bubbling up in the poetry of the Psalms. The Lord is my rock and my tortress.' 'God is the rock of my strength and my refuge is in God.' The same idea passe into our thoughts of Jesus. He is the 'Rock of Ages' of which Toplady sings.

"Rock of Ages cleft for me, Let me hide myself in thee."

In the cleft of this Rock, sighing sorrowing, sinning man finds refuge. The conflict with (vil is close. The breath of the foe is breathed with burning flush upon the cheek of everyone. Man can never stand alone against the battlalions of all his moral foes. But in the Gibraltar of Christ's saving grace, the little one becomes a thousand, and a small one a strong tions of the world. We sometimes pray as he taught us to pray, 'Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.' and we go out to feel sgain the pressure of the world's allurements, go out to teel the tangling snares which temptation has set in life's path for our unwary feet. But here is the Saviour whose, life and words throw their shadows of retreat about us all. When the conl longs to flee from itself, when it would fly from its doubts, when it yearns to get away fom its own uncertainty, then when all else has failed, when all life's props have have been in the habit of seeking refuge been swept away, we come to know the shinning truth in Wesley's hymn:

"Other refuse have I none:
Hangs my helpness soul on thee:
Leave Oh, leave me not alone,

The rock and its shadow is suggestive of protection. Who does not remember some rock of childhood days, in which we found protection from she sun at noo: - Jay and from the shower in mid afternoon? Or, does there not come to mind some great boulder in the old pasture, with a beaten path all the way around it? The sheep and cattle have followed its shadow all through a hot summer's day, and in driving storms it has offered them its protection from piercing winds and cold rains. So, says the prophet, shall the Savior be. So, indeed, he is. He stands in the unprotected paths of men. He sees the multiluie as sheep without a shepherd, with no one to lead tham, with no one to protect them. He longs to care for them to guide and to protect them. With out-stretched hands, with tender voice, he says: 'I am the good thepherd.' The

If you are ill you need a doctor in whom you have confidence.

If you need a remedy you want one that has been tested for years; not an obscure, untried thing that is urged upon you, or on which you save a few cents—that is no consideration as against health.

For wasting in children or adults, Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites has been the recognized remedy for twenty-five years.

50c. and $1.00, all druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto

world has witnessed a marvelous triumph of faith in the days of Mr. Gladstone. Dying of a most terrible malady, what he dwe't on to the exclusion of all other things was the consciousness of the divine pro tection. So many times | did he repeat, Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil, for thou art with me; thy; rod and thy staff they comfort me.'

And still another suggestion of the rock and its shadow is the idea of rest. You have been out for a walk on a summer's day, the day was hot, the road dusty, and you b came very tired. But you found a res'ing place in the shade of some way-side

We are passing through vacation days. To the farm, to the lake, to the mountain and to the sea, peopl: are]burrying from town and city. For ten months and more they have been in the midst of work and worry. With tired heads, and tired bands, and tired feet, they are in pursuit of some resting place. These halts and vacations are well. There must be times for repair, times to regain lost energy and lost health. little of the place of rest which is at hand all the year? We toil on in our strength. We do not stop beneath the shadow of our Rock. 'Rest in the Lord.' We need more of the rest. "I will give you rest," says Jerus. Yes, we may find rest by lake and mountain and s. a. But there is a rest conditioned by any geographical change. It is the rest that Carist gives to the soul. Have we this rest? It so then with Mrs. Browning we can say:

"And I smiled to think Gol's goodness flowed around our incompleteness, Round our restlessness his rest."

The rock and its shadow give us the hought of retreshing. You think of the tetreshing shade of some rock in pasture, or fill, or meadow. How cool it was, clad in its robe of lichens, black and grey and yellow! Around it was the carpet of moist, green moss, and, growing close up to the roadsides were palm-like ferns, while from its base there bubbled up a little spring of water, clear and cool and sweet. As you lay down upon the velvety carpet, and beneath the shadow of the rock you said this is delightful, this is refreshing. And perhaps as you fell to musing, there came to mind the imagery of Isaiah: 'as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.' Christ, the Lord, is our refreshing shade, our cooling stresm.

In southern and western Media the cli mate in summer is in ensely hot. Vegetafore the gusts of hot air which, at intervale, blow up from the southern desert. But the mountains with their perpetual snows are not far away. And "in all ages the people in these districts of Media grace. Today, let us step into the shadow of our Rock. In it sching heads, and aching hearts are always soothed. Turn aside from the dusty way, from the shadeless sun's of life's passions and strifes turn aside from the meridian neat of a world's ambitions and sins, and 'find rest unto your souls.

Begin Each Day With Prayer.

I begin my day's work some mornings, perhaps wearied, perhaps annoyed with a multiplicity of traffes which seem too small to bring great principles to bear upon them. But do you not think there would be a strange change wrought in the pretty annoyances of every day, and in the small trifles that all our lives, of whatever texture they are, must largely be composed of, if we began each day and task with that old prayer, 'Rise, Lord and let thine enemies be scattered?' Do you not think there would came a quiet in our hearts, and a victorious peace to which we are too much strangers? It we carried the assurance that here is one that fights for us into the trifles as well as into the store struz, gles of our lives, we should have pesc, and victory. Most of us will not have many large occasions of trial and conflict in our career; and, if God's fighting for us is not actual in regard to the small that here is one that fights for us into annoyances of home and daily I fe, I know not for what it is available. 'Many littles makes a mickle,' and there are more deaths in skirmishes than in the pitch field of a great battle. More Christian people lose their hold of God, their sense of his presence, and are beaten according by reason of the little enemies that come down on them, like a cloud of gnats in a summer's evening, than are defeated by the shock or a great assault or a great temptation, which calls out their strength, and sends them to their knees to ack for help from God .- Alexander M. Laren, D. D.

It is reasonable to believe that God is. that He loves us, and that we are subjects of His grace. Believing this, it is reasonable to praise him for His goodness. We praise God with our reason when we trust His promise, obey His voice and are submissive to His will, and when we give our intellectual powers to His service.-United Preshyterian.

CURED BY LOVE.

The Most Re Warkable Case Ever Recorder

Perhaps the most remarkable case even recorded in the annals of medicine or love was brought to a happy conclusion recently by the marriage of the Rev. Thomas C. Hanna to Miss Anna Barnes Cook, in a Connecticut church.

The two young people, now happily united, were engaged to be married when, a year ago, Mr. Hanna, one of the most elequent and promising young ministers in America, was thrown out of a trap and re. ceived serious injuries to his head. When he was removed to his home it was found that his memory was absolutely gone, and that the bril iant young giant (for he is a man of splendi t physique) was reduced to the helplessness of an intant. Inte'l sot as well as memory was gone. He could not formulate a single word, understood nothing that was said to him, did not know how to use his hands or feet, or even how to eat the food which was offered him. His fiancee, who nursed him with a pathetic devotion, undertook the task of raining this upgrown infant. She slowly and patiently tanght him how to walk, and how to speak and write simple words. In his dreams he would repeat names and incidents associated with the life he had lost; but on awaking he lapsed to the child sgain, du ing the heats of July and August in intelligence, and from a child would sudthe shadow of the adjacent mountains, from whose cool white brows, the refreshing air has dropped upon the feverish taces of the suppliant population." Like the snow-clad mountains of Media, the Lord Jzsus Christ lets fall upon us, we rry travelers, the refreshing influence of his

Walter Baker & Co., Limited.

Dorchester, Mass., U. S. A.

on this Continent. No Chemicals are used in their manufactures. Their Breakfast Cocoa is absolutely pure, delicious, mutritious, and costs le's than one cent a cup. Their Premium No I Checolate is the best plain chocolate in the market for family use. Their German Sweet Chocolate is good to eat and good to drink. It is palatable, nutritious and healthful; a gre t moories with Consumers should ask for and be sure that they get the seasons Baker & Co.'s goods, made at Dorchecter, Mass., U. & CANADIAN HOUSE, 6 Hospital St., Montreal.

PURE, HIGH GRADE

Cocoas and Chocolates often dredge up from the bottom of the ocean very strange things, but it is not so well known that praceful anglers in our English streams have equally strange ex-Only a short time ago a gentleman was fishing in the River Nene, in Northamptor shire, with a live roach as bait for a pike when an otter swellowed the bait and hook A full-grown otter would ordinarily be a very formidable opponent in such circumstances; but the animal' on being drawn up the bank, seemed terrified, and the angler had no difficulty in clubbing him to death with the but -end of his rod.

cipitately behind him, suddenly tound he be found he had booked a rabbit by the ear. Evidently the rabbit had popped out of its burrow in the bank at an unfo tanate moment.

low seizing a fly as it was cast on the water by an angler. The hook penetrated the lower bill, and the flattering bird was taken captive.

something unusually heavy. It came rolling and twisting to the bank like a languid s a serpent. It proved to be the caceass of a sow that had been drowned.—Tid-Bits.

A Good, Memory.

ing characteristic anecdote of Mr. Glad stone. A party of younger men than the great statesman once had the impudence to chaff him on his devotion to Homer. The narrator was one of the group. Mr. Gladstone took their nonsense very amiable, the narrator, who bappened to be aitting next to bim, he turned toward him with the single word 'try'.

the clergyman continues. 'He had paid me out for my impudence in chaffing him. I had not looked at Homer for twenty but on awaking he lapsed to the child sgain, and the gilhe loved was to him a nurse and nothing more.

Then ensued a very remarkable phase, which puzzlad doctors and friends slike.

He would at times recover his memory and th line or something like that, 'he said. Then he shut his eyes and poured forth five or sux lines of thundering Greek verse. 'Isn't that it's he said.

six lines of thundering Greek verse. 'lsn't that it?, he asked.
'I had to confess that I had no notion whether that was it or not: bu? I looked it up when I got home, and that was it.'

Governor A kinson of Georgia is reported by the Washington Post as telling a pretty good story out of his own experience. 'Not long since,' said the governor, 'I had to visit some coal-mines where convict labor is employed. A couple of guards es corted me to the lower regions, showed me looked our way and rushed up to me, aaying:

Bill Atkinson, as sure as I live! Why Bill, I never expected to see you here. What on earth did you get sent up for?

'The man was a litelong acquaintance, and when I told him how I happened to be there it appsared to releave him greatly, but there was much laughing among his comrades.

CHARARARARARA

STRIKING exists between laundry soaps. Some are made for DIFFERENCE show, some trade on glories of the past-goes on its quality. Try it.

Send us 25 "Eclipse" wrappers or 6c. in stamps with coupon and we will mail you a popular novel. A coupon in every bar of "Eclipse."

JOHN TAYLOR & GO

Manufacturers, Toronto, Ont.

Those Anglers were surprised.

It is well known that deep sea fishermen

One angler whipping a trout stream with a fly, the bank of the stream rising prehad got a rise. But it was behind him and not in the stream. On looking round

An instance has also occurred of a swaj

Trolling for pike often results in strange opjects being brought up from the riverbad. A man was once trolling in a Mid. land stream when he found he had hooked constitution and the stream when he found he had hooked

A well-known clergyman tells the follow chatting and laughing with them.
'Homer?' he said. 'I believe I could g on at almost any place you could start ms. Then to the amazement and horror of

'I was never so taken aback in all my life."

Surprised to See Him.

corted me to the lower regions, showed me what was being done, and finally conducted me to the place where the convicts were at work. as we approached the force in striped garments, one of thier number looked our way and rushed up to me, asy-

Junction-A place where two roasd epwate.

Conceit—Often the true term for exag-

Conceit—Often the true term for exaggersted humility.

Expert—A man who doesn't get confused when cross examined.

Villa zers—People who wear abbreviated cotting in comic operas.

Miserly—People who don't spend their money as we think they should.

Nervous—The sensitive state of some people induced by the nerve of others.

Love—The thing that makes a girl think as much of a men as she does of herse.t.

Repartee—The bright things we always think of after the occasion for saying them is past.—Chicago News.

Hadn't Thought of That

Hadn't Thought of That.

In the waiting-room of the militay commission in a Russian town st two fathers of femilies in deep anxiety about the fate of their sons, which would be snortly decided by the said commission.

'I am at a loss,' said one, 'what to say if I am asked the age of my son. If I make him out to be younger than he is, he will be sent to school; if I make him too old, they'll stick him in the army. What am I to do?'

'How would it he if you told the commission in a Russian in the army.

'How would it be if you told the com-mission his exact age?' inquired his friend. The first speaker looked up in amaza-

'Capital; I hadn't thought of that.

An Immense China Closet

The Czar of Russia probably owns a greater quantity of China than any other person in the world. He has china belonging to all the Russian rulers as far back as Catherine the Great. It is stored in an immense cluset in the winter palace at St. Petersburg.

'Papa,' said the boy, when you say in your advertisements that your goods are acknowledged by connisseurs to be the best, what do you mean by connoisseurs?' A connoisseur, my boy,' answered the beat manfacturer, 'is an eminent authority-an authority in short, who admits that our goods are the best.'

Oll and young are ben fixed by Dr. Harvey's Soutaern Rad P.ne. 25 ceats per bottle.

Bixby(very near signted); Who's that dumpy lright coming up the road on the bicycle?'

bicycle?'
Sixby: 'Tast's my wife.'
Bixby: 'Fc-sh, a no—I don't mean that one: I mean the guy with the horcid stupid rationals.'
Sixby: 'O 1' that's your wife'

•000000000000 Your Symptoms include a feeling of fatigue, lack of energy, dizziness, coated tongue, sick headache, deeply colored urine,—these or any of them are indications of bilious-ness and a disordered liver.

Dr. HARVEY'S Anti-Bilious & Purgative

PILLS

will give you prompt relief. 30 years trial have not found them wanting. With improved sugar coating are easily taken.

Purely vegetable, mild and efficient p 33 pills for 23c. For sale everywhere.
Or 1 box sent as sample on receipt of 25c.

THE HARVEY MEDICINE CO., 424 ET. PAUL ST, MONTREAL.

CALVERT'S CARBOLIC OINTMENT

Is unrquailed as a remedy for Chafed Skin, Piless Scalis, Cuts, Sore eyes, Chapped Hands, Chilbisin Earathe, Villia at 12 11 at 12 241, Taro Colds, Engworm, and Skin Aliments generally.

Large Pots, 1s 1% 1. each, at Chemists, etc., with Instructions.

Instructions.

Illustrated Pamphlet of Calvert's Carbolic Preparations sent post free on application.

F.C. CALVERT & CO. Manchester.

arding their e best ferent. lbood, blown e both