

TREMBLAY DEFEATED YOUNG GOTCH

Ottawa, May 12.—Eugene Tremblay, of Montreal, successfully defended the lightweight wrestling championship of Canada against Young Gotch, of England, Saturday night at the Arena. Tremblay did not pin Gotch to the canvas, but forced the holder of the British title to give in on two occasions. Tremblay was awarded the first fall in 32 minutes, and the second in 15, the toe hold proving the undoing of the English champion in both cases. The bout was witnessed by about 1500 spectators, and was one of the best ever seen in the capital. Both were lightning fast and Gotch gave Tremblay a harder struggle than the French Canadian had anticipated. Gotch often had Tremblay all but down, but Tremblay appeared to have too much strength and always managed to break away though the referee was on the verge of slapping Gotch on the back two or three times. Honors were even until they had wrestled about 55 minutes, then Tremblay nailed Gotch with the toe hold and forced him to give in. Gotch fought and struggled unsuccessfully for five minutes, but failed to break away. He refused to give in until he could stand the pain no longer and Tremblay was given the first fall. Gotch sighed in relief as Tremblay released his grip. The second bout was good but Gotch was all in and after 15 minutes tugging and twisting, he again surrendered, a victim to the deadly toe hold which has made both Tremblay and Frank Gotch what they are in the wrestling world. The crowd cheered the gameness of the Englishman and called to Tremblay to "cut out the toe hold."

At the close of the match Gotch stepped to the front of the stage and offered to put his belt against Tremblay's that he could beat the Montrealer with the toe hold barred. Tremblay accepted the challenge providing Gotch would weigh in at 123 pounds, and it is probable that they will be brought together in the same ring next Saturday night. Gotch was a local favorite, having decided to make Ottawa his home town.

WHITE SOX HAVE SCHEME TO BREAK UP DOUBLE STEAL

The Chicago White Sox have a new scheme to break up the double steal, so effective at times. This is the way they do it:

With runners on first and third the man on first runs up the line to draw the pitcher's throw and while he is dodging up and down the man on third tries to score.

When the Sox find themselves up against the double steal they go after the man on first. As soon as he leads off the first baseman follows him and the catcher calls for a pitch out. The short stop runs in for a short throw and the second baseman, as soon as he has pitched the ball, runs to first, to take a throw, if by any chance the batter should reach out and hit the ball.

With the first baseman on his heels the ball going to the shortstop and the runner finds himself cornered. As lines it to the first baseman, who either touches the runner, or, if necessary, throws to the second baseman to finish the job. It is all done so fast that the runner on third has no chance to run home.

POLICE PROTECT UMPIRE— BIG LEAGUE RESULTS

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Saturday Game.

New York, May 11.—In one of the wildest games ever played in the American league park, Detroit today defeated the Highlanders by a score of 9 to 5. The largest crowd of the season was out and early in the game began to growl at O'Loughlin's umpiring. Volterton was put out of the grounds in the seventh, and when Quinn was put out in the eighth for throwing his glove away, pop bottles and glasses were thrown at O'Loughlin. A fresh volley was hurled at the umpire when he ousted Street for protesting at a ball.

Daniels was also put off the field by Umpire Westervelt. O'Loughlin had a hard time getting off the field without incurring personal violence, but a crowd of special policemen surrounded him and assisted him out of the grounds while bottles and other missiles were being fired at him.

The game was one of the most spectacular played in New York this year, some of the fielding being superb. Ford was taken out of the box with the visitors leading 1 to 2, two on bases, two out and with one strike on Crawford. Vaughn then gave passes to Crawford, Delahanty, Morarity and Bauman, throwing 12 balls before putting over a strike and forcing in three runs. Quinn went in and the first ball he pitched was a wild pitch, giving Detroit five runs for the inning and the game.

Before the game Ty Cobb was presented with a loving cup by admirers for being the "best batsman in the country." He responded by getting only one scratch hit.

ST. JOHN TEAM DEFEATED BERMUDIANS

A cricket match between eleven representing the Bermudians and St. John was played on the Barrack Square on Saturday and resulted in a victory for the home team by 46 runs in the first innings.

The Bermudians made a fair start but "the tail" failed to come up to expectations, the last five wickets contributing only 3 runs. Tucker made 7, the highest score. The bowling of Outram and Coulthart was very effective.

For the St. John team Bradbury was responsible for 19, and double figures were also reached by Coulthart and Porter. Smith for the Bermudians did most of the execution with the ball and captured six wickets clean bowled.

The St. John club, which is going strong this season, will play Rothesay College at Rothesay next Saturday.
