

THE WEATHER.

Maritime—Fresh southwesterly and southerly winds; fair and warm today; a few scattered showers during the night or on Saturday.

Toronto, June 18.—Some local thunderstorms have occured in the southwestern counties of Ontario, but otherwise the weather has been fair and warm from the Great Lakes eastward. It has turned cooler in the western province, and thunderstorms occurred in many places during last night.

To Hold Conference.
A Bowden, the agent for New Brunswick in Great Britain, who came to St. John with a party of immigrants, will go to Fredericton today to have a conference with the officers of the Department of Agriculture.

Their Child Dead.
Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nealey, of 21 Paradise Row, will sympathize with them in the death of their son, Frederick Ronald, aged six years, which occurred yesterday morning at 5.50 o'clock. He succumbed to an attack of diphtheria. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon to the new Catholic cemetery.

No Definite Word.
Although no definite word was received yesterday in regard to the action of the Minister of Labor respecting the dispute between the street railway and its employees there was a rumor to the effect that the labor department had appointed an executive from the North End to represent the company.

A Chicane.
Last evening about one hundred youngsters gathered in front of the residence of John A. McAvity, on Grand street, built a large bon fire and conducted a regular chivaree in honor of the wedding of Rev. J. MacKeigan and Miss Mabel McAvity. The youngsters were invited into the house and all came out wearing happy smiles.

TO ADJUST WESTERN WATERWAYS MATTER

Hon. H. A. Powell arrived in the city last evening from Fredericton where he had been in connection with court business. When asked concerning the International Waterways Commission, Mr. Powell said Senator Gardiner and himself would go to Alberta early next week where they would look over the division of the waters of the Milk and Mary rivers near the boundary of Southern Alberta and the United States.

There was some dispute in connection with the water from these rivers and the Waterways Commission had been called upon to adjust the matter.
Mr. Powell expects to leave St. John on Monday and will be away several weeks.

REV. WILLIAM M. KNALLIN DIES AT YARMOUTH

Was one of oldest members of Baptist church in Eastern Canada — Ordained about sixty years ago.

Yarmouth, June 18.—Rev. William Mortimer Knallin, one of the oldest ministers in the United Baptist church in Eastern Canada, died at his home here last night after an illness of almost three years with abscess in the side. He was born of English parents at Studholm, Kings county, N. B., on February 3, 1828, and was thus eighty-six years and four months old.

About sixty years ago he was ordinated in the Free Baptist church in New Brunswick. Forty-six years ago he came to Nova Scotia as pastor of Centreville, Cape Island, Free Baptist church. Since then he had held pastorates in all the Free Baptist churches in Yarmouth county. His last charge was Sandford.

Thirty years ago he purchased a homestead farm in Yarmouth and had made his home there ever since. He was active in the ministry until the time of the union of the Baptists and Free Baptists, when he was super-annuated. A long-suffering man, his life was an inspiration to all who knew him.

"His wife, who died some years ago, was Rachel Weyman, of Millstream, N. B., and was the daughter of the late Rev. Edward Weyman, a Free Baptist minister. Of a family of six, only one—Minnie, wife of F. L. Marshall, survives. Four sisters are Mrs.
Coates, of St. John; Mrs. Gosline and two others, both named Mrs. Mace, of Sussex. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon."

Inquiry Into Charge Against Com. McLellan

Nothing Sensational develops at first session—Officer Briggs tells of meeting with Commissioner on Harrison Street Corner.

The first session of the inquiry being conducted by the Mayor in accordance with a resolution of council passed on June 1st, into the charge that Com.
McLellan attempted to dissuade Officer Briggs from attending to his duty by watching a certain place, did not develop any features of sensational interest.

Police Officer Briggs, sworn, testified that he was ordered to watch Durick's drug store by Sgt. Kilpatrick. On April 9th, about 10 p. m., Com. Mc-Lellan met him at the corner of Harrison and Main streets, and said:
"Briggs, what seems to be the trouble?"

Witness said: "Where do you mean?"
Durick's.

The commissioner said: "Yes." Witness said Durick was selling liquor under doctor's certificate. The commissioner wanted to know how he knew, and witness said he had had the druggist up the other day and fined $100.
Kilpatrick told him to watch the place as much as possible on Saturday and Sundays on account of complaints coming from the outside. Witness told the commissioner that he was not a son-in-law of Kilpatrick's; then the commissioner said:

"Briggs, you do your other rounds as well as watching this place and I will see about Kilpatrick later." The commissioner added: "Briggs, I have no fault to find with you, but take my tip, you do as I tell you, and you will come out better in the end."

On the Monday morning following witness went to the chief's office and asked if he had a right to take orders from Kilpatrick. He then reported to the chief what the commissioner had said to him.

On the next Saturday Durick offered him $10, but he did not take it.

Witness had a conversation with Com. Potts concerning the meeting with Com. McLellan on April 19, and Com. Potts asked him if he would be willing to appear if the matter was brought up. He met Com. Potts at the latter's request.

On Special Duty.
To Com. McLellan witness said he had been detailed to do special duty: looking after boys and girls around the ship yards.

Q.—Did I say to you also that if I were you I would not spend my time at this kind of work (watching drug stores), but would devote more to doing what I was sent to perform.

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did I in any way say to you that you should not watch Durick's?

A.—You told me to do my other work as well as hanging around this corner.

Witness thought he had been about ten minutes on the corner. He came from Kilpatrick's shipyard.

To Com. McLellan witness said he did not blame Officer McCollum for giving evidence against Perry. He saw McCollum go into Jones' brewery while on duty. He had said he would get square with McCollum.

Q.—Were you and Silas Perry in partnership in the owning of a house?
Did you buy him out?

A.—No, sold out to him.

Com. McLellan—According to sworn

TROUBLE OVER PRACTICE OF
U.S. FISHERMEN

Maine Lobster Smacks fish outside three mile limit during closed season—International question.

A question which is giving the Dominion Fisheries Department some concern has arisen as a result of the action of American smacks coming down to the Nova Scotia coast and catching lobsters outside the three mile limit, said Ward Fisher, inspector of fisheries for Nova Scotia, who was in the city yesterday.

"These vessels pursue their operations just outside our littoral waters at a time when our own people are prohibited from fishing lobsters. For some years past a number of smacks from Maine have been fishing for lobsters just outside our three mile limit during the summer. When our lobster fishermen start operations in the fall they find their best grounds have been fished over and naturally they don't like it.

"Maine has no close season. Lobsters can be landed there at any time of the year and there is nothing to prevent lobster smacks from Maine catching lobsters three miles off the Canadian coast."

ON Our Coast.
From another source a Standard reporter was informed yesterday that there was a likelihood of American smacks fishing for lobster three miles off the coast of New Brunswick this year. In the past American smacks have not fished for lobsters off the coast of New Brunswick.

Mr. Fisher stated that many Canadian lobster fishermen made their catches in the open season outside the three mile limit, and consequently the practice of American smacks of catching lobsters on these grounds when our own fishermen were forbidden to take lobsters, presented a very serious problem. Unless this practice was stopped our own close season intended to give the lobsters a chance to propagate would be of no effect and the lobster fishery would be seriously depleted, especially as many of the lobsters taken in the summer, were covered with eggs. The Canadian regulations could not be enforced outside the three mile limit, and as the
international relations it would not be easily solved.

TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL MEETING

Recommend changes in the Constitution—Elect delegates to provincial Federation Convention.

The Trades and Labor Council held its regular meeting last evening. C. H.
Stevens was elected to represent the Trades Council on the Community Council.

A communication was received stating that the New Brunswick Federation of Labor would meet in Fredericton on July 1st, and P. Scurrah and J.
Hurley were elected to represent the council at this meeting.

The legislative committee made a report, recommending a number of changes in the constitution of the council.

The delegates who attended the preliminary meeting of the Community Council made a report and expressed the opinion that the Community Council would do some good if it were up such matters as the housing problem.

The fair committee submitted a partial report.

TEACHERS' RECEPTION AT ST. JOHN ART CLUB

Members of the St. John Art Club gave a reception to the teachers of the city and private schools in their rooms last evening. There was a large attendance and all showed great enthusiasm for the work as carried on by the Art Club. W. S. Fisher presided in the early part of the meeting and later Mr. Brodie occupied the chair.
There were short addresses by different speakers and it was pointed out that the members of the club were insistent of having the work of the club and the art school take on a practical nature and it was hoped that the club would conduct evening classes during next winter.

There was an exhibition in the studio last evening the work of the art students as well as specimens of the work done by the pupils in the manual training department of the public schools being shown.

During the evening it was announced that L. D. Millidge had presented the club with a plaster bust of Homer.
