Dorchester, Aug. 30.—Rev. W. H.
Freda, B. A., has resigned his pastori-ate of the First Baptist church, at Dorchester, and accepted a call to the Union Square Baptist church, Somerville, Mass. The call carries with it a salary of $2,000 per year. Dorchester

A SUPPOSED SPY.
The Eastport correspondent of the Bastard News says:—It was learned here Tuesday that two strangers from the American side made a recent trip to Campbell, N. B., and were later observed making sketches of the coves and where taken in charge by the Dominion officials. While they claimed to be American citizens owning a German name was taken to St.
John, N. B., a supposed spy, while the other was allowed to return to Maine.

Poughkeepsie, Aug. 30.—A heavy event, North Spur, a heat of the 2.17

GIVEN UP AS LOST.
Boaton owners of the ship Timandra, which left Norfolk on March 6 for Buenos Ayres, have given her up as lost. Captain Richard Lee, her master, had his wife with him on the passage, the crew consisting of nineteen men all told. Some idea is entertained that the ship may have been one of the vessels sunk by the German raider Seeadler.

HEAVILY INSURED.
Schooner Augustus Welt, which was set on fire on the French coast July 21 by a German submarine, was insured for $150,000. She had just been repaired at a cost of $34,000. Her freight money, which was paid in advance, amounted to $90,000, while her cargo was valued at $200,000.

OLD TIMER SOLD.
Bark Amy Turner, 900 net tons, built at Boston in 1877, and which has for years been on the Pacific Coast, has just been sold to W. S. Scammell of San Francisco, at $55,000. This is a big price for the forty years old craft, which was reconverted from a barge in 1915.

Who and What's What in the Picture World and the Stage—Favorites and What They and Do.

on the life of Peter, Bentley is finally forced to confess and is landed in jail.
He is bailed out and makes an attempt on Peter's life for revenge. Pursued by Peter and Dick Annassey, Bentley seeks refuge in the Brewster home.
He persuades Philippa to shield him and when the pursuers arrive she informs them that Bentley has escaped by way of the window. In hiding, Bentley overhears Hubert Brewster telling his business associates of an unexpected coup in Q and D. He realizes that this information, if made public, would ruin Brewster and decides to make use of it to accomplish his aim.

"Marry me or I will ruin your father," is his message to Philippa.
Philippa hurries to Bentley's home to save her father from the threatened catastrophe. Annassey, seeing Bentley entering, had summoned the police. He is greatly surprised when he sees Philippa going into the house and heartbroken decides to abandon the investigation.

A Joker comedy (Universal), Some Nurse, featuring Gale Henry, proved amusing to the audience.
Burdell and Burdell offer an act which is rapid fire talk and contains several unexpected turns which are really funny. They were well received Thursday afternoon.
