Shipping Notes.

The wreck of the brig Katie, of Cascumpec, P. E. I., which went ashore on Cape Tormentine while on her passage from Miramichi for Great Britain, is to be sold by auction on Monday next, by Mr. C. O. Hanford. It is doubtful whether this storm will leave anything of her worth selling.

Commencing on Monday next the steamer New Brunswick will make through trips to Boston, leaving here every Monday morning. The New York will go to Portland only, leaving here every Thursday.

The brigantine Summer which sailed from this port on the 27th inst. for Cardenas went ashore on West Quoddy the same evening and is a total loss. The Summer was built at Courtenay Bay, for Mr. Robb, Blair and others, and launched on the 20th September. On the 5th October she sailed for Pictou and put back the next day. She sailed from Pictou on the 30th October arriving here on the 13th inst., after a very rough passage of 15 days, having lost her foretopmast, foretopgallantmast, maintopmast and all attached. Having received new spars and being thoroughly repaired she cleared for Cardenas with her cargo of coals on the 27th inst. and went ashore the same day. The brigantine is insured.

A Sad Case of Drowning.

Last evening about 11 o'clock, Mr. Gamman, one of the employees at Adams' mill, Carleton, (now running at night) came out of the building for some purpose, and fell off the wharf and was drowned. Leaving the glare of the lights and coming out suddenly into the dark night, he probably did not observe how near he was to the edge of the wharf. Gamman was a native of Miramichi, and has for some time past been a resident of Carleton. He was about 30 years of age, and leaves a disconsolate widow. The body not been recovered.

Mails for Fredericton, Grandboro and Sheffield will close at 1.15 p. m., instead of 3 15, on and after Monday.

Loss of a Continent.

Plato sent down to posterity a tradition of his day that a great continent which occupied the place now covered by the Atlantic Ocean suddenly sank down out of sight. He further says it was an island called Atlantis. On it were kingdoms and organized governments, wealth, arts and civilization, instantly lost to human sight. It is now the opinion of the leading geologists—those most advanced in science—that the American continent appeared when the Atlantic waters rushed into the enormous cavity or depression on the earth's surface now filled by salt water. The Rocky Mountains were then the rough bottom of an ocean which rose with marine plants, shells, and other products of an aquatic origin, that are found abundantly around there, and, in fact, all over North and South America. Remnants of Atlantis, the submerged continent, are believed by some scientists to be recognized in the Adirondacks, the White Mountains of Maine, and a few other outcroppings belonging to the outer boundaries of that deluged and forever lost country. There is no knowing what astounding discoveries may yet be made in coming ages corroborative of Plato's narration.
